PREFACE.

The record of eight sessions of the General Assembly is in this book.

Of neither branch of the legislature are the Journals for this period preserved in our archives: nor do they exist, so far as the editor is aware.

The Journal of the Governor and Council after October, 1773, is not extant. So much of that journal from October, 1772, to October, 1773, as is preserved is printed in this volume, but it is of slight interest. It is much to be regretted that the Council Journal and the Journal of the House of Representatives for the period approaching the Revolution should be lost.

In the Appendix are reprinted four pamphlets which were published by authority:

I. The Susquehannah Case, sufficiently described in a note at page 161 of this volume.

II. Report of the Commissioners appointed by the General Assembly of this Colony to treat with the Proprietaries of Pennsylvania respecting the Boundaries of this Colony and of that Province. Norwich: Printed by Green & Spooner, 1774.

This is a pamphlet of thirty-seven pages, small quarto. It has been described in various catalogues as having thirty-six pages, for the last leaf is wanting in most of the few remaining copies. Timothy Green's bill for printing two hundred copies, five and a quarter sheets, is in our archives, Finance & Currency, V, doc. 117. The correspondence between the Commissioners and Governor Penn, in this pamphlet, is also printed in Pennsylvania Colonial Records, vol. x, and Pennsylvania Archives, vol. iv.

III. An Account of the Number of Inhabitants in the Colony of Connecticut, January 1, 1774. Together with an Account of the Number of Inhabitants, taken January 1, 1756. Published by order of the General Assembly. Hartford: Printed by Ebenezer Watson, 1774.

This is a folio of nine leaves, each printed only on one side. Watson's bill for the printing, £29 17 9, is in Revolutionary War,

I, 201. He made a discount of £3 "for the liberty of the copy," but the General Assembly, it seems, thought his charge excessive.

IV. Heads of Inquiry relative to the Present State and Condition of His Majesty's Colony of Connecticut, signified by His Majesty's Secretary of State in his Letter of the 5th July, 1773; with the Answers thereto. New London: Printed by T. Green, Printer to the Governor and Company, 1775.

This is a small folio of fifteen pages. Six hundred copies were ordered to be printed.

Whereas credible information has been given to this Assembly, that one Zebulon Culver, a lieutenant of the company in the regiment in this Colony under the command of Capt. Roger Marsh, on the 13th day of October instant, being a publick training day for said company legally warned and convened, in a turbulent and contemptuous manner drew off part of said company and assumed the chief command over them, and with them did publickly disobey and insult his said Capt. Marsh his orders and authority, and in great contempt of the laws of this Colony regulating their militia &c.: Whereupon this Assembly order and direct that a precept be issued forth by the Secretary of this Colony immediately, to arrest the body of him the said Zebulon Culver, and him have before this Assembly, to answer to the said information and further be dealt with as to justice appertains, and that proper evidences be also cited to appear.

Whereas Zebulon Culver, of Litchfield in Litchfield county, being a lieutenant in the second military company in said town under the command of Capt. Roger Marsh, being by special warrant brought before this Assembly upon the complaint of the said Capt. Marsh against said Culver for being guilty of disobeying his orders &c. in contempt of the laws of this Colony, as per complaint on file, and this Assembly having examined into the matters of said complaint, and the said Culver having before this Assembly, by his written confession on file, made suitable reflexions upon himself for his conduct in the premises, praying for favour, which confession is accepted: Whereupon it is resolved by this Assembly, that the said Culver be dismissed and released from any further punishment, upon his paying the cost that has arisen in and about the premises.

Whereas upon the petition of Samuel Tozer of Colchester

against Peter Bulkley of said Colchester, the General Assembly at their sessions in May last appointed Joshua West, Samuel Selden and Benjamin Huntington, Esq^{rs}, a committee to enquire into the matters in said petition alledged and make report &c, as per petition on file, and said committee having enquired into said matters have made report to this Assembly, that they find said Samuel Tozer is jointly indebted to said Peter Bulkley in the sum of thirty-seven pounds one shilling and four pence, and that what sum said Bulkley has got satisfied on his execution ought to be deducted out of that sum, and that said Bulkley's execution [158] ought to be endorsed || down to that sum &c., as per report on file, which report is accepted and approved by this Assembly: And thereupon it is resolved by this Assembly, that said execution in favour of said Bulkley against said Tozer, mentioned in said petition, and the judgment on which it was granted may not be carried into execution for any further or greater sum than £37 1 4, including what sum hath already been paid or satisfied on said execution. And the clerk of said county court for the county of Hartford is hereby authorized and impowered to grant alias execution on said judgment at the request of said Bulkley with a proper endorsement thereon that said judgment and former execution is satisfied or remitted down to said sum of £37 1s. 4d. including the sum that hath been paid or satisfied already on said execution.

Upon the petition of Richard Alsop, of Midletown in the county of Hartford, against George Stilman, of Saybrook in the county of New London, shewing to this Assembly that John Provost, late of the city and Province of New York, now deceased, in his life time before the adjourned county court holden at Hartford on the fourth Tuesday of June, 1765, recovered a judgment of said court against said George Stilman for the sum of £56 10 0, York currency, damages, and £2 6 6, lawful money, for his costs of suit, and had execution issued thereon in due form of law, and the same was delivered to Stephen Blake, then sheriff's deputy for Hartford county, and the same on the first of September following was by said Blake levied on a small triangular piece of land, the property of said George, lying in said George's homelot in said Midletown now in Chatham in said county, containing four acres, beginning at the southwest corner of land the same day taken in execution at the suit of John Alsop, and runs thence by Connecticut River as said river runs forty-seven rods, thence turns and runs north 34

degrees east fifty rods, thence turns and runs by said Alsop's said land west fifteen degrees north twenty-eight rods to the first station abovesaid, and the same being then apprizd at the price of thirty-two pounds, lawful money, the said Blake then immediately indorsed and subscribed his return of the said levy and apprizement on said execution, and said Provost likewise then and there indorsed on said execution his acceptance thereof as £32 0 0, lawful money, in part of said execution, and delivered the same to said Blake to return into the clerk's office of said county court to be recorded, and thereupon entered and took possession of said land and held the same until he conveyed the same by an authentick deed to said Alsop, who thereupon entered and hath held said land ever since, and that upon diligent search lately made said Alsop finds that said execution and said officer's return thereon are not either of record or on file in said office, neither can they be found among said Blake's papers, who is since deceased insolvent, and that the same is either lost or purloined from said clerk's office or lost some other way without any default of said Alsop, whereby his title to said land has become very defective; he therefore prays this Assembly to confirm his title to said land in as ample a manner as if said execution and said returns of said officer were entered of record, as per petition on file, dated September 21st, A.D. 1772; and the said Stilman now appearing by his attorney and confessing the facts stated in said petition to be true: Resolved by this Assembly, that said Richard Alsop may and shall have and hold the abovementioned land to him, his heirs and assigns, in as full and ample manner, to all intents and purposes, as if said Blake's return of said execution and apprizement had been duly made to the office of the clerk of the county court for said Hartford county and there recorded; and that this decree, or a transcript thereof, in all future tryals at law shall be admitted and received as full evidence of said Richard's title to said land against said George Stilman and all claiming by, from or under him.

Upon the petition of William Jepson, of Hartford in the county of Hartford, and others his creditors &c., preferred to the General Assembly, shewing that by losses, misfortunes &c. he is reduced and become unable to pay his debts &c., praying for an act of insolvency to be passed in his favour, as per petition on file; Oliver Wolcott, Thomas Darling, Esq^{rs}, and Capt. Joseph Trumbull were appointed a committee by the General Assembly in May last, who accordingly

Upon the memorial of Josiah Bissell, Esq^r, and the rest of the inhabitants of the town of Windsor in the county of Hartford in the Colony aforesaid, praying for liberty to set up and keep a ferry in said Windsor across Connecticut River, a little south of the ferry called Scantick Ferry, &c., as per memorial on file, dated the 6th day of May, A. D. 1772: Resolved by this Assembly, that the said memorialists have liberty, and liberty is hereby granted unto them, to set up and keep a ferry in said Windsor a little south of the ferry called [1c6] Scantick Ferry, to wit, on the || bank of said river at or near the highway that leads from the dwelling-house of Eliakim Mather in said Windsor to said river, to cross said river with a good tight boat sufficient both for largeness, strength and steadiness, for the safe transportation of passengers, their horses, carriages and other creatures, well furnished with suitable oars and other implements necessary of that service, and men sufficient to manage the same, and to be subject to the laws of this Colony for regulating ferries, and have the same fees as by the laws of this Colony are had and received at said Scantick Ferry.

Upon the memorial of the society of Kensington in the town of Farmington in the county of Hartford, by their agent, shewing to this Assembly that it is best and absolutely necessary for their mutual peace and real happiness, as well as from their limits, situation, extent and wealth, and other respects, that said society should be divided into two distinct ecclesiastical societies by a north and south line, which they have a long time laboured to effect ; and said south society having now mutually agreed that the most reasonable line of division will be in the following manner and form, to wit : Beginning at the south line of the said society, at the place where the river called Belcher's River crosses the said line, thence extending northerly by said river until it comes to the four rods highway, so called, thence on the same highway until it comes to the south side of Selah Hart, Esq^r, land, thence east on the line of said Hart's land to the same river again, thence northerly a direct course (leaving said Hart's now land on the west, if any of it should happen to fall east of said course) to a point on the highway ten feet east of Deacon Ebenezer Hart's dwelling-house, from thence north to the north line of said society ; to include however the whole of said Deacon Hart's farm on which he now dwells in said west society. And it is also further agreed, that one or other of said societies so to be divided will accept and receive the Rev^d Mr. Clarke, the present pastor, for their minister as he shall choose, and that such of said society with whom he shall incline to continue shall and will in future engage to perform and fulfil to him the contract now subsisting between him and said society of Kensington. And it is also further agreed, that the most convenient and suitable place for building a meeting-house in said east proposed society is at a stake set near a maple tree in the dividing line between the lots of Solomon Dunham and Benjamin Galpin ; and the most convenient place for that purpose in said west part is a little westward of the dwelling-house of Daniel Cole jun^r, where a stake was lately set up between two large stones in the middle of the highway. And said society by their agents, Selah Hart, Esq^r, and Mr. Jedediah Norton, now moving that said line of division and the places fixed for the building of meeting-houses may be ratified and established, and that such of said societies with whom the said Mr. Clark shall incline to continue may be held to fulfil to him the contract now subsisting as aforesaid, and that each of said several societies may be enabled to proceed in the building of a meeting-house at the places aforesaid, as per memorial and the votes and doings of said society &c. appears : Wherefore, and that peace and harmony may be restored to them &c., it is resolved by this Assembly, that the said society of Kensington shall be and the same is hereby divided into two distinct ecclesiastical societies, with full powers and privileges as other societies by law have and do enjoy, according to the lines, bounds and limits beforementioned and described ; and that said west

society shall retain and be called by the name of Kensington, and that the said east society shall be called by the name of Worthington, and that such of said societies with whom the said Mr. Clark shall choose or signify his willingness or desire to continue as their minister shall for the future perform and fulfil to him the contract now subsisting between him and said whole society, so long as he shall remain in the work of the ministry among them. And it is further resolved and ordered, that the several places fixed for the building of meeting-houses as aforesaid shall and the same are hereby established to be the most proper and convenient for that purpose; and each of said two societies shall have full power, and full power and authority is hereby given to them, by their major vote to lay taxes and raise and levy money for the building of such house or houses at the places aforesaid as they shall severally so vote and agree to build and erect for divine and publick worship in said societies. And whereas the interest of the Rev^d Mr. Clarke may be materially affected by the division aforesaid and by his being obliged to remove from his present situation: It is therefore further resolved, that Colo. Jabez Hamlin, Maj^r Erastus Wolcott and Maj^r Elisha Williams be and they are hereby appointed a committee with full powers to notify all concerned and to examine into and consider of all circumstances relative to the said Mr. Clarke's interest, and how far the same may be affected by the [187] division || aforesaid, and what compensation, if any, ought to be made him, and by whom, and generally whatever shall appear necessary or expedient, that full and compleat justice may be done to the said Rev^d Mr. Clark in the premises, and report their opinion thereon to this Assembly in May next, unless some previous agreement shall be come into concerning the matters aforesaid.

Whereas the committee appointed to take into consideration the matters contained in the memorial of the President and Fellows of Yale College in New Haven, preferred to this Assembly, have reported that there is a balance of £180 10 9, lawful money, due for the necessary expences of said college for the year past, and that the memorialists have no money in their treasury to pay the same: This Assembly grants to the memorialists the said sum of £180 10 9 out of the treasury of this Colony, to be paid in bills of publick credit of the last emission; and the Treasurer of this Colony is hereby ordered to pay the same to the treasurer of said college, to be improved for the purpose aforesaid.

An Act for repealing an Act of the General Assembly of this Colony made and passed at their Sessions held at Hartford on the second Thursday of May, 1770, intituled An Act in Addition to an Act concerning Petitions and Prayers or Memorials to the General Assembly; and also for repealing one other Act of said Assembly made at their Sessions held at New Haven on the second Thursday of October, 1770, intituled An Act in Addition to and Alteration of the said Act intituled An Act in Addition to an Act intituled An Act concerning Petitions and Prayers or Memorials to the General Assembly and also for making Provision for the Tryal and Decision of sundry Matters in Equity.

[200] Whereas it is found by experience, that the provision made in said two acts is not beneficial to the people of this Colony, but fails to answer the ends proposed :

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor, Council and Representatives, in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, That said two acts be repealed, and they are hereby severally repealed and made void.

Provided nevertheless, That all such petitions and memorials as are now depending in the General Assembly shall and may proceed and be finally determined in the same manner and by the same rules as such causes and matters have heretofore been done since the making the acts aforesaid.

And it is also further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all suits for relief in equity, wherein the value of the matter or thing in demand does exceed the sum of five pounds and does not exceed the sum of twenty pounds, shall be heard and determined by the respective county courts in this Colony in the county where one of the parties dwell.

And it is also further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all suits for relief in equity where remedy is not to be had at law, wherein the value of the matter or thing in demand does exceed the sum of twenty pounds and does not exceed the sum of one hundred pounds, shall and may be heard and determined by the superior court of this Colony in the respective counties where one of the parties dwell ; which suits shall be brought in the same manner by petition or memorial as such matters have heretofore been brought before the General Assembly of this Colony. And the aforesaid superior and county courts are hereby authorized and directed, to take cognizance of all such matters in equity as shall from time to time be brought before them, respectively, pursuant to this act, and shall proceed to hear by themselves or a committee and finally determine the same according to the rules of equity ; and that no review or appeal shall be had from the sentence or decree of such superior or county court therein. And such courts are hereby respectively impowered to enforce such their sentence and decree according to the usage and custom of the General Assembly in like cases ; any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

This act to continue in force for the space of three years from the rising of this Assembly, and no longer.

An Act in Addition to and Alteration of a Law of this Colony entituled An Act for providing, regulating and mending Highways.

Whereas the method provided by said act for laying out and altering publick highways occasions great and unnecessary expence, and no provision is therein made for laying out private ways for the use of the inhabitants of towns in case the selectmen neglect or refuse to lay out the same : For remedy whereof.

Be it enacted by the Governor, Council and Representatives, in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, That when application is made as by law is already provided to any county court in this Colony, for laying out a new highway or for altering any highway, upon inquiry by a disinterested committee or other evidence, the same is judged by said court to be of common convenience or necessity, such court is hereby impowered to appoint a committee of three disinterested sufficient freeholders to view and lay out or alter such highway, which committee shall give seasonable notice to one or more of the selectmen of the town or towns in which the same is to be laid out, and also set up a notification in writing on the sign-post in such town or towns, at least twenty days before they enter on said service, thereby notifying the owners of the lands and others concerned of the time, place and occasion of their meetings, and shall be under oath to perform said service according to their best skill and judgment, with most convenience to the publick and least damage to private property ; and shall ascertain the place and course of such highway, and estimate the damages done to any particular persons by laying out the same, and make return thereof in writing under their hands to said county court, which being approved by the court and recorded, said highway shall be and remain a publick highway, and the [201] charges of || laying out the same, and the damages sustained by any persons thereby, shall be paid and recovered as by law is already provided. And in case any person is aggrieved by the doings of said committee, either in laying out such highway or estimating the damages, the court upon application, before the report of the committee is accepted or any determination made thereon, may enquire into the matter complained of, by a jury if the party aggrieved desire it, and grant such relief as the case may require: but if it appear that there was no just cause of complaint, the court may order that the person applying shall pay the cost arising thereby, otherwise it shall be paid by the town; and such court may give judgment and grant execution accordingly.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the selectmen of the respective towns in this Colony, or the major part of them, may lay out such publick highways or private ways as they shall judge needful within their respective towns, first giving reasonable notice to the owners of the lands through which the same are to be laid out, or leave such notice in writing at the place of their abode, if within this Colony, to be present if they see cause at the laying out of such ways; and the damages done to such persons by laying out the same shall be paid by the persons applying for such ways, if the same be for their private use only: but if such ways be for the common use of the inhabitants, it shall be paid by the town. And a survey in writing under the hands of said selectmen containing a particular description of such way being made, accepted by the town, and recorded in the records of lands in such town, and satisfaction made to the persons damnified, or the money deposited with the town treasurer for their use ready to be paid to them when they apply for the same, according to an estimate that shall be made by three judicious disinterested freeholders under oath, appointed by an Assistant or justice of the peace for that purpose, or as the selectmen and parties interested may agree, then such ways shall be and remain for the use for which they are laid out.

Provided, nevertheless, That if any person shall be aggrieved by any act done by the selectmen in laying out any public or private way, or by the estimate of the damages, such aggrieved persons may, within eight months after the same is laid out, apply to the county court in the county wherein such town is situated, for relief, causing said selectmen to be duly cited to shew reason, if any be, why such relief should not be granted, which court may enquire of the same by a jury, if the aggrieved party desire it, or by a committee, and grant such relief as shall appear to said court just and reasonable, either by discontinuing such highway or private way, or altering the same, or increasing the damages; and if it appear that there was just cause of complaint, the charges arising thereby and the increase of damages, if any be, shall be paid by the town or persons for whose use such way is laid out, but if otherwise the said court may order said cost to be paid by the party complaining, and give judgment, and grant execution accordingly. And no highway or private way laid out by the selectmen by virtue of this act through any persons enclosure, who shall declare himself aggrieved by laying out the same, shall be laid open or occupied until the expiration of twelve months after laying out such way, that such persons may have opportunity to apply for relief as aforesaid, and also have time to fence and secure their inclosures.

And be it further enacted, That if the selectmen of any town, upon application, shall refuse or neglect to lay out such private ways as may be necessary for any inhabitants of such town, the county court is hereby impowered, upon application, to cause such ways to be laid out as may appear necessary, in the same manner as publick highways are by this act directed to be laid out, and order the cost of laying out the same, and damages sustained by any person thereby, to be paid by the persons applying for such ways, if the same be for their private use only, but if for the common use of the inhabitants, then to be paid by the town. And each committee-man employed in laying out highways shall be allowed for himself, horse and expences, six shillings per diem.

And whoever shall sell or offer to sale any bunch or bunches of onions that shall not be fully cured, dry, well and firmly bunched, and of four pounds [and] an half weight, shall forfeit each bunch of onions so offered to sale, or the value thereof, and no more, to him who shall complain thereof and prosecute the same to effect; any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

[202] An Act in Addition to a Law of this Colony entituled An Act for preventing, punishing and removing of Nuisances in Creeks, Rivers and other Water Courses.

Whereas the fishing with hedges or bush-seines in Ousattonnick River disturbs and obstructs the fish in their course and passage up said river, and is found by experience to prevent the catching them in so great plenty as was had before the use of such bush seines:

Be it enacted by the Governor, Council and Representatives, in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, That for the future no person or persons whatsoever shall make use of any such hedge or bush-seine for catching of fish in said river, or put any such seine into said river, or draw or drive any such bush-seine up or down said river or in any part thereof in the seasons for catching fish, or be any way aiding or assisting therein. And each person who shall be convicted of the breach of this act shall forfeit and pay a fine of twenty shillings, one half to the treasurer of the town wherein such conviction is had, and the other half to any person who shall sue for and prosecute the same to effect.

An Act in Addition to an Act entituled An Act for the preventing, punishing and removing of Nuisances in Creeks, Rivers and other Water Courses.

Whereas the course of fish up Shatucket River, and up Quinebaug River, is continually interrupted by the drawing of seines and other fish-craft, as now practised, which tends to prevent their increase and occasions a great mispence of time, to the injury of the publick :

Be it enacted by the Governor, Council and Representatives, in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, That for the future no person or persons whatever shall be allowed to use or draw any seine or other fish-craft in either of said rivers, from the rising of the sun on Thursday morning to the rising of the sun on Monday morning in each week, in the months of April, May and June, annually.

Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons shall be guilty of any breach of this act, on conviction thereof before any court proper to try the same, each person so offending, or that shall be aiding and assisting therein, shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten pounds for the use of him who shall sue for and prosecute the same to effect.

And it is further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for any town adjoining to either of said rivers in which such trespass shall be done, to prosecute by their agent any breach of this act, in which case the fine or penalty recovered shall be paid into the treasury of such town, for the use of said town.

Provided, That nothing in this act shall be taken to prevent the drawing of seines as has been usual on the east side of a small island in Shatucket River, near opposite to the place called Roth's Landing Place, within seven rods distance from high-water-mark, next to and on the easterly side of said island.

that there would be a new society in the northern part, called the village, which has had that appellation from the beginning, and a proposed line has been kept up between the old and new proposed societies; that when the present meeting-house was built the place was fixed and ascertained on said antient agreement, and with a view and prospect of said new society's being formed in some future time, and provision was made to reimburse the people living northerly of a certain line agreed on, what they should pay towards building the present meeting-house; and that, upon the facts thus found, they are of opinion that the meeting-house ought to remain where it now stands, according to said antient agreement, and that the same be kept in good and sufficient repair at the cost and expence of the whole society; and that whenever the northern or village people shall think it their interest to be set off a distinct society and shall obtain a grant of the General Assembly therefor, the society then remaining shall refund and pay back to such new society what the inhabitants north of such agreement line as aforesaid did advance and pay towards building the present meeting-house, as well as what they shall hereafter pay towards the repairing said [273] house; as per said report on file, || which report is and is hereby accepted and approved; and said committee being present and further reporting to this Assembly, that it was their opinion and understanding, that said Assembly ought to and would limit a reasonable time within which the said village people, or the people northerly of said proposed line of division, should be made into a distinct society accordingly, and in order to be entituled to said reimbursement, which time they judged it did not properly appertain to them to limit and ascertain: Whereupon it is resolved by this Assembly, that the meeting-house in said society shall be fixed and remain on said meeting-house hill, where it now stands, according to said antient agreement, and that the same shall be kept in good and sufficient repair at the cost of the whole society. And it is further resolved, that if the said northerly inhabitants shall think it for their interest to be a distinct society according to said antient agreement-line, and shall obtain a grant therefor of the General Assembly, the said society remaining shall refund and pay back to such new society what they paid towards building the present meeting-house, as well as what they shall hereafter pay towards repairing said house: on condition they shall apply for and obtain such grant of Assembly within five years from the rising of this Assembly.

together numbers of spectators, and gratify vain or useless curiosity. Nor shall any mountebank, or person whatsoever under him, at or on any such stage or place offer, vend or otherwise dispose of, or invite any persons so collected to purchase or receive any physick, drugs or medicines, commended to be efficacious and useful in various disorders.

Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons shall be guilty of any breach of this act, on conviction thereof before any court proper to try the same, every person so offending shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty pounds for each and every such offence, for the use of him who shall sue for and prosecute the same to effect; and so toties quoties.

Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of all informing officers to make presentment of all breaches of this act; in which case the fine shall belong to the treasury of the county wherein such conviction is had.

And it is further provided, That if any servant, or any minor or apprentice under age, shall be guilty of breaking any paragraph of this act, on conviction thereof his or their fine or penalty shall be paid by the parent, master or guardian under whose direction the same shall be committed or done, and execution shall be awarded accordingly.

An Act in Explanation or Addition of an Act entitled An Act in Addition to and Alteration of one Act of this Colony entitled An Act for directing and regulating the Levying and Serving Executions.

Whereas it is provided in said act last made, that whensoever any execution shall be levied on lands the same shall be apprizd by three indifferent freeholders of the same town where such lands lie &c. : And whereas doubts and disputes have arisen and may arise, whether any execution when the same is in favour of the town where such lands lie can be proceeded with agreeable to the directions of said act: Which for the future to prevent,

Be it enacted by the Governor, Council and Representatives, in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, That when execution in favour of any town shall be levied on any lands, three freeholders of such town where such lands lie shall not be deemed indifferent freeholders for the purpose aforesaid, but in such case the apprizers shall be inhabitants and freeholders of the next adjoining town.

[292] An Act providing for the Payment of the Cost of prosecuting Delinquents.

Be it enacted by the Governor, Council and Representatives, in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, That the cost of prosecuting delinquents on indictment or information made by the King's officers, when such delinquents have no estate to pay the same, shall be paid out of the treasury into which the fines, forfeitures or penalties adjudged against such delinquents on conviction are by law to be paid and belong; and the cost already incurred on such convictions shall in like manner be paid out of such treasury into which the fines or forfeitures are by law to be paid, as is before in this act provided for the payment of cost which may hereafter arise.

An Act in Addition to and Alteration of an Act entituled An Act for raising a certain Sum to be appropriated to the Erecting and Maintaining a Light-House near the Port of New London, and for laying a Tax on Shipping for the Support thereof.

Whereas by said act it is enacted, that all vessels entering and clearing out for any port or place more remote than Philadelphia in Pennsylvania, and Portsmouth in New Hampshire, above twenty tons and not more than fifty tons the sum of four shillings and six pence, lawful money, and for each vessel above fifty tons and not more than one hundred tons the sum of six shillings, and so in proportion as they shall be larger: And as the tax aforesaid is found insufficient for the support and maintenance of the light-house,

Be it further enacted, That from the first day of March next, each vessel in burthen twenty tons and not more than fifty tons shall pay the sum of six shillings, lawful money, and each vessel above fifty tons and not more than seventy tons the sum of seven shillings and six pence, and each vessel above seventy tons and not more than ninety tons the sum of nine shillings, and each vessel more than ninety tons and not more than one hundred tons ten shillings and six pence; and so in proportion as they shall be larger.

And be it further enacted, That all vessels not belonging to this Colony which shall enter and clear at the said port shall be subjected to a tax double what is hereby laid on the navigation of this Colony; and all vessels that shall harbour and anchor in the port of New London shall be subjected to pay, towards the support of the light house, at the same rate as the vessels belonging to this Colony pay when they clear out; which tax becoming due as aforesaid shall from time to time be paid to and collected by the naval officers of the ports where any such vessel shall be cleared out, deducting for their fees as they are allowed for collecting other duties. And the naval officer of the port of New Haven is hereby directed to forward the tax he shall collect, quarterly, to the naval officer of the port of New London, for the convenience and speedy accommodation of the light house; which is to be by him appropriated to the use aforesaid; any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

An Act in Addition to and Alteration of an Act entituled An Act for ordering, restraining and preserving Sheep.

[293] Whereas it is practised in some of the towns in this Colony by some particular inhabitants to turn large flocks of sheep on the highways with a keeper, and thereby eat up and destroy the herbage therein, to the great detriment of the poor inhabitants of such towns: Which to prevent,

Be it enacted by the Governor, Council and Representatives, in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same,

That no particular person in any town in this Colony shall for the future turn any flock of sheep on the highways, with a keeper, of more than fifty, to eat up and consume the herbage therein, without liberty first had and obtained from such town or the proprietors thereof; on pain that every offender shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty shillings for every such offence, to him or them who will sue for and prosecute the same to effect.

Resolved by this Assembly, That the Hon^{ble} Mathew Griswold, Esq^r, Eliphalet Dyer, Roger Sherman, William Sam^l Johnson, Samuel Holden Parsons, Silas Dean, William Williams and Jedediah Strong, Esq^{rs}, be and they are hereby appointed and impowered, to assist his Honor Governor Trumbull in collecting and preparing all exhibits and documents necessary to pursue and prosecute the claim and title of this Colony to the lands lying within the boundaries of the grant and charter of the Colony west of Delaware River, at the Court of Great Britain, and to make a proper state of said cause to be transmitted to Great Britain for that purpose; and to report to this Assembly from time to time of their proceedings therein.

Resolved by this Assembly, That his Honor the Governor be and he is hereby desired, from time to time, to transmit to the Agent for this Colony all such papers, documents, intelligence and preparations, as his Honor and the committee appointed by this Assembly to assist him therein shall be able to collect and furnish, relative to the lands claimed by this Colony westward of the river Delaware, and to give the said Agent such instructions and directions for his conduct concerning the same and the management of any cause or causes that shall or may be instituted in Great Britain touching the said lands, or any part of them, as his Honor and the said committee shall from time to time agree upon, and as the exigency of the controversy concerning said lands shall or may require.

Whereas the General Assembly of this Colony at their sessions at Hartford in May, 1771, did resolve and declare, that the lands west of the river Delaware and in the latitude of that part of this Colony eastward of the Province of New York are well contained within the boundaries and description of the charter of King Charles the second to this Colony: And whereas a large number of people are settled on part of those lands, at or near a place called Wyoming, under the claim of this Colony, and have made their humble application to this Assembly to take them under the protection and government of this Colony: And whereas many persons of suspicious and bad characters, to escape from justice and to carry on their villanous designs with impunity, do resort to said place to the great disquiet of the well-disposed people settled there, whereby publick justice may be evaded and iniquity encouraged: For remedy thereof,

Be it enacted be the Governor, Council and Representatives, in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, That the inhabitants dwelling within the bounds of this Colony on the west side of the river Delaware be and they are hereby made and constituted a distinct town, with like powers and privileges as other towns in this Colony by law have, within the following bounds and limits, viz: Bounded east by said Delaware River, north by the north line of this Colony, west by a north and south line across the Colony at fifteen miles distance west from a place in Susquehannah River called Wyoming, and south by the south line of this [294] Colony; which town is hereby annexed to the county of || Litchfield, and shall be called by the name of Westmoreland.

Provided nevertheless, That no person dwelling in any other town in this Colony shall be liable to be sued before any justice of the peace in said town of Westmoreland, nor shall any person inhabiting within said town of Westmoreland be sued or called from thence, to answer in any civil action before a justice of the peace in any other town; nor shall the sheriff of the county of Litchfield, or any of his deputies dwelling in any other town in this Colony, be compelled to receive any writs to be served in said town of Westmoreland in any civil action.

Resolved, That the committee appointed by this Assembly to assist his Honor Governor Trumbull in preparing the necessary exhibits and evidences to support the claim of the Colony to the western lands be, and they are hereby, authorized to engage, procure and employ, suitable persons to ascertain the latitudes and longitudes of the north and south lines of the Colony, at such places as they shall find necessary and convenient for the purposes aforesaid.

Whereas this Assembly have resolved that they will assert their claim, and in some proper way support such claim, to those lands contained within the limits and boundaries of the charter of this Colony which are westward of the Province of New York,

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor, Council and Representatives, in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, That his Honor the Governor be and he is hereby authorized and desired to issue a proclamation forbidding any person or persons whatsoever taking up, entering on, or settling any of the lands contained and included in the charter of this Colony lying westward of the Province of New York, without liberty first had and obtained from the General Assembly of this Colony.*

Resolved by this Assembly, That Roger Sherman, James Abraham Hilhouse, Esq^{rs}, and Mr. Thomas Howell, be and they are hereby appointed a committee, upon application to them made, to take into consideration the claims and settlements lately made by divers persons on the lands situate on or near the waters of the Susquehannah River within the limits and boundaries of the charter to this Colony, and to endeavour to adjust and settle with such claimants and settlers what and how much of their respective claims they shall hold and be quieted in under the title of this Colony, and on what terms; and their report thereof to make to the General Assembly of this Colony in May next; and that those people who have been settled within the limits of this Colony on the west side of Delaware River for more than fifteen years last past be quieted in their respective settlements.

Resolved by this Assembly, That Thomas Life, Esq^r, Agent for this Colony, be and he is hereby fully authorized and empowered to appear, plead, pursue, answer and defend in behalf of this Colony, in all courts and in all causes, matters and things, as he shall be advised relative to the title and claim of this Colony to the lands within the bounds and limits of our charter from his late Majesty, King Charles the second, pursuant to such instructions and directions as he shall from time to time receive from his Honor the Governor; and that a proper power be made out under the seal of this Colony, to be signed by the Governor and transmitted to him for that purpose.

[295] Resolved by this Assembly, That Mr. Thomas Life's salary, as Agent for this Colony, for the future shall be one hundred pounds sterling per annum.

itors in proportion to their respective debts, without any preference being given to any of said attaching creditors, or otherwise to divide said estate &c. among said creditors as aforesaid, in case they shall so agree; for which purpose said trustees are directed to notify a meeting of the creditors at such time as they shall appoint in some of the public papers of this government and New York, six weeks successively next before such meeting; which creditors at such meeting shall [301] have full power by a major vote both in number and || value, to agree in a division of said estate in proportion to each of their debts ascertained or to be ascertained as aforesaid, without any advantage being given to said Hazard on account of the interest contained in said computation as mentioned in said report. And that upon said Marvin's resigning up into the hands of said trustees all his said credits and estate, except as above excepted, and making a legal conveyance of the same for the use and benefit of his creditors by the first day of May next. together with his notes, books, vouchers and securities, he shall thereupon be liberated, freed and protected from any arrest or imprisonment, either on mesne process or execution, for any debt or duty due and owing from said Marvin at the date of said petition. [343] Upon the petition of Benjamin Marcy, Asabel Marcy and Mary Marcy, widow, all of Woodstock in Windham county, and Dorcas Barns, of Plymouth in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay, as they are the only descendants from and legal representatives of James Corbin, late of Dudley in the county of Worcester and Province of the Massachusetts Bay, shewing that in June, 1708, the said James Corbin, then of said Woodstock, by sundry purchases from Major James Fitch, then of Canterbury, became seized in fee of 21400 acres of land in the township of Ashford by estimation, of which said lands many sales were therein made by said Corbin, and many incroachments have been since made thereon by settlers and different claimers of said town of Ashford to the great prejudice of said Corbin, and by means whereof the title to many lots was rendered uncertain to the possessors thereof &c., and so continued until May, 1719, when, upon application to the General Assembly of this Colony for that purpose, a committee was appointed to enquire into and ascertain the claims of certain particular persons, and also to settle and liquidate all the claims to lands in said town of Ashford, which was accordingly done by said committee, and afterwards ratified and confirmed by said Assembly in October, 1719, upon report then made thereof &c.; that afterwards in November, 1725, the said James Corbin obtained a patent from this Colony of all those certain lands first surveyed to and claimed by the New Scituate gentlemen, so called, not included within their original right of five and three miles square, by force of which said patent the said Corbin became seized in fee of 2476 acres of said land, first surveyed to said New Scituate gentlemen as aforesaid; that notwithstanding all the settlements and ascertainments of said said several persons lands so made by said committee in the year of our Lord 1719, the inhabitants and settlers in said town of Ashford have from time to time been encroaching and entering upon the said Corbin's lands, as well those purchased from said Fitch as those contained in said patent from this Colony, and have by sales and dispositions thereof, and in various other ways, rendered the petitioners' title thereto so perplexed and embarrassed that it is almost impossible to evince the same in due course of law &c.; praying for a committee to examine and report the same with their opinion thereon &c.; whereupon a committee was appointed, and have now reported that the said Corbin and those claiming by or under him have not taken up on the claim of the said Corbin, viz. those lands which he purchased of said Fitch, the whole quantity allowed to him by the settlement of said Assembly's committee in 1719, but that there still remains to make up the whole of the quantity so allowed nine hundred and ten acres one rood and twenty-eight rods; and also that there remains untaken up by said Corbin &c. in the patented lands granted by this Assembly in 1725 to said Corbin and his associates, exclusive of what lands lying within the bounds of said patent was duly settled by said committee in 1719, thirteen hundred and seventy-five acres of land; that the petitioners are heirs of the said Corbin, and have the sole equitable right to said lands so remaining as aforesaid, and ought to have and hold the same in the following proportion, to wit: the said Mary Marcy one ninth part, the said Dorcas Barns one ninth part thereof, and the said Benjamin Marcy three fifths of seven ninth parts thereof, and the said Asahel Marcy two fifths of seven ninth parts thereof. And the said committee have also reported it as their opinion, that the petitioners ought to be restricted to take up the said remain-

From Colonel David Wooster.

New Haven 16 May, 1774.

Sir: I have your Honor's letter before me of the 18th of February last, and for answer:

1. The latitude of New Haven is $41^{\circ} 18'$ north, and long. $73^{\circ} 30'$ west from London, taken by good observations.

5. New Haven has the principal harbor in the western part of the Colony, situated north and south, half a mile wide at the entrance, and from the entrance to the town four miles, having two fathoms and an half water at low water, and three fathoms and four feet at common tides, and very good anchorage.

7. The trade from this part of the Colony is entirely to the West India Islands, and the exports are horses, oxen, pork, beef, tallow, and lumber, and the imports West India produce. The shipping belonging to this port are one hundred and eight vessels, consisting of brigantines, sloops and schooners, amounting to seven thousand one hundred and seventy tons, carpenter's measure. The number of seafaring men are seven hundred and fifty-six. As for their increase or diminution I must refer your Honor to the last return, ten years ago.

8. British manufactures and India goods, imported annually from Great Britain into the port of New Haven, on an average amount to about £4000 sterling; for which remittances are made in pot and pearl ashes and bills of exchange. European and India goods taken from Boston and New York annually amount to about £40,000 sterling, for which remittances are made in pork, beef, wheat, rye, indian corn, flax-seed, pot and pearl ashes.

9. We trade with no foreign plantation, except the French islands in the West Indies, nor to any parts of Europe but Great Britain. We carry to the French plantations horses, oxen and lumber, and receive in return sugar and molasses, to the amount of about £3000 sterling annually, on an average.

10. The methods to prevent illegal trade are, the custom-house officers go on board all vessels as soon as they come into port, and after due search being made they report to the King's collector the cargo on board, which proves very effectual.

11. The natural produce of the country is wheat, rye, indian corn and flax; the staple commodities are pork, beef, wheat, rye, indian corn, flax-seed, pot and pearl ashes. Our manufactures are coarse linens and woollens for the poorer sort of people and servants, also iron-mongery, but we export none.

From Jeremiah Miller Esq.

Answer 1. The latitude of New London, the best harbour in Connecticut, is by observation $41^{\circ} 25'$ north, and longitude $4^{\circ} 45'$ west from London, that is, $71^{\circ} 15'$ west from London, by observation of the eclipses of the moon, calculated by Halley's tables.

4. New London, as above, is one of the principal harbours, and opens to the south; and from the light house at the mouth of the harbour to the town is about three miles, and a breadth of three fourths of a mile and more in some places, from 5 to 6 fathoms water, a clear bottom, tough tax that would arise thereon, and said additions and fourfold assessments being now properly certified: the first amounting to the sum of £1137 0 0, and the latter to the sum of £857 8 0: Resolved by this Assembly, that the Treasurer do and shall receive, add and include the same in such warrant as he hath already issued for the recovery of any public taxes granted to be levied upon said inhabitants, as though the same had been duly returned in May last. And the Secretary is also ordered and directed, to enter the aforesaid sums in the public records of this Colony.

ooze, and entirely secure and commodious one mile above the town for large ships.

7. The principal trade of this government is to the West India islands, excepting now and then a vessel to Ireland with flax seed, and to England with lumber and pot ashes, and a few to Gibraltar and Barbary. There is 72 sail of vessels now belonging to this district, amounting to 3247 tons, in which there are 406 seafaring men employed, besides upwards of 20 sail of coasting vessels, that employ about 90 seamen. On comparing, the trade is on the decrease; for in the year 1763 there were 79 sail of vessels belonging to this district, a difference of 7 sail.

8. It is impossible to enumerate the various sorts of British manufactures that are here imported; but in general almost every sort is consumed here, which we have principally from New York and Boston, to the amount, upon a medium, from the best information I can get, of £150,000 or 160,000 sterling per annum.

9. Besides the English islands, (which supply this government with more than its home consumption of rum and sugar,) it has a trade with the French and Dutch West Indies, Gibraltar and Barbary. Those vessels that go to the French and Dutch plantations carry horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, provisions and lumber; those for Gibraltar and Barbary carry flour, lumber, New England rum, and stores for muling, the whole annual amount of which (I should think) about £50,000 sterling; for which we receive molasses, cocoa, cotton and some sugar, and from the Dutch plantations bills of exchange; and the mules from Barbary are generally sold in the West Indies for bills of exchange, the most of which importation and bills goes to New York and Boston, to pay for the British goods this government receives from those places.

10. The custom-house officers here are attentive to their duty, besides which this harbour is so situated that the coming in from sea is between the east end of Long Island and Block Island, and by the west end of Fisher's Island, where the king's cruisers are generally upon the look out, and very critical in examining the vessels they meet with.

11. The natural produce of this country is timber, iron and copper ore, myrtle-wax, &c. The produce and staple commodities are indian corn, wheat, rye, beef, pork, flax, flax seed, oats, beans, peas, potatoes, cheese, cider, apples, &c., which articles are carried in the coasting vessels to New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Virginia and Carolina, to what value is very difficult to determine, but I should think to at least £20,000 sterling, which with the £50,000 sterling in the foreign trade, makes, on this estimation, the annual amount of exportation from this district £70,000 sterling. It is evident the whole falls short of paying for the British manufactures we receive, as many of our traders have failed, and the New Yorkers have taken their landed interest in this Colony in payments to a very considerable amount. The chief manufactures are pot and pearl ashes, bar-iron, and necessary implements for husbandry, &c.

Resolved by this Assembly, That proper carriages for the cannon at New London be procured and properly mounted, and that the arms and accoutrements in store there be cleansed, repaired and kept fit for service, and that a suitable quantity of powder and cannon-ball be speedily provided; and that Jabez Huntington and Joseph Spencer, Esq^{rs}, be a committee for the purpose aforesaid, to view and examine the state of the battery at said New London, and to report their opinion as to the expediency of repairing the same, and in what manner, and the amount of the expence thereof.

Whereas a sum of money is necessary for payment of incident charges of government:

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor, Council and Representatives, in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, That there be forthwith imprinted the sum of fifteen thousand pounds in bills of credit on this Colony, equal to lawful money, of suitable denominations as the committee herein appointed shall direct, and of the same tenor with the late emission of bills of credit of this Colony, without interest, payable at or before the second day of January, 1777, and dated the second day of January, 1775. And William Pitkin, George Wyllys, Elisha Williams, Benjamin Payne and Thomas Seymour, Esq^{rs}, or any three of them, are appointed a committee for the purpose aforesaid, to take care that said bills be imprinted with all convenient speed, and to sign and deliver the same to the Treasurer of this Colony, taking his receipt therefor. And the said committee shall be sworn to a faithfull discharge of their trust. And the said Treasurer is hereby directed to pay out said bills according to the orders of Assembly.

And for providing an ample and sufficient fund to call in, sink, and discharge the aforesaid sum to be emitted as aforesaid:

Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That a tax of one penny on the pound be and is hereby granted and ordered to be levied on all the polls and rateable estate in this Colony according to the list thereof brought in to this Assembly, October, A.D. 1774, with the additions; and also a further tax of one penny on the pound be and is hereby granted and ordered to be levied on all the polls and rateable estate in this Colony according to the list thereof to be brought in to this Assembly in October, 1775, with the additions; which taxes shall be collected and paid into the treasury of this Colony, viz: one-half by the last day of December, 1775, and the other half by the last day of December, 1776; which taxes may be discharged by paying the bills emitted by the Colony or lawful money; and the Treasurer of this Colony is hereby ordered and directed to send forth his warrants for collecting the same accordingly.

By the House of Representatives of the English Colony of Connecticut, second Thursday of May, 1774.

This House, taking into their serious consideration sundry acts of the British Parliament, in which the power and right [385] to impose duties and taxes || upon his Majesty's subjects in the British Colonies and Plantations in America, for the purpose of raising a revenue only, are declared, attempted to be exercised, and in various ways enforced and carried into execution, and especially a very late act in which pains and penalties are inflicted on the capital of a neighbouring Province, a precedent justly alarming to every British Colony in America, and which being admitted and established, their lives, liberties and properties are at the mercy of a tribunal where innocence may be punished upon the accusation and evidence of wicked men, without defence and even without knowing its accusers; a precedent calculated to terrify them into silence and submission whilst they are stripped of their invaluable rights and liberties; do think it expedient and their duty at this time, to renew their claim to the rights, privileges and immunities of Freeborn Englishmen, to which they are justly intitled by the laws of nature, by the royal grant and charter of his late Majesty King Charles the second, and by long and uninterrupted possession, and thereupon do declare and resolve as follows, to wit:

1. In the first place: We do most expressly declare, recognize and acknowledge, his Majesty King George the third to be the lawful and rightful King of Great Britain and all other his dominions and countries, and that it is the indispensable duty of the people of this Colony, as being part of his Majesty's dominions, always to bear faithful and true allegiance to his Majesty, and him to defend to the utmost of their power against all attempts upon his person, crown and dignity.

2. That the subjects of his Majesty in this Colony ever have had, and of right ought to have and enjoy, all the liberties, immunities and privileges, of free and natural born subjects within any of the dominions of our said King, his heirs and successors, to all intents, constructions and purposes whatsoever, as fully and amply as if they and every of them were born within the realm of England. That they have a property in their own estate, and are to be taxed by their own consent only, given in person or by their representatives, and are not to be disseized of their liberties or free customs, sentenced or condemned, but by lawful judgment of their peers; and that the said rights and immunities are recognized and confirmed to the inhabitants of this Colony by the royal grant and charter aforesaid, and are their undoubted right, to all intents, constructions and purposes whatsoever.

3. That the only lawful representatives of the freemen of this Colony are the persons they elect to serve as members of the General Assembly thereof.

4. That it is the just right and privilege of his Majesty's liege subjects of this Colony, to be governed by their General Assembly in the article of taxing and internal police, agreeable to the powers and privileges recognized and confirmed in the royal charter aforesaid, which they have enjoyed for more than a century past, and have neither forfeited nor surrendered, but the same have been constantly recognized by the King and Parliament of Great Britain.

5. That the erecting new and unusual Courts of Admiralty, and vesting them with extraordinary powers above and not subject to the controul of the common-law courts in this Colony, to judge and determine in suits relating to the duties and forfeitures contained in said acts, foreign to the accustomed and established jurisdiction of the former courts of admiralty in America, is in the opinion of this House highly dangerous to the liberties of his Majesty's American subjects, contrary to the great charter of English liberty, and destructive of one of their most darling rights, that of Tryal by Juries, which is justly esteemed one chief excellence of the British constitution and a principal bulwark of English liberty.

6. That the apprehending and carrying persons beyond the sea, to be tryed for any crime alleged to be committed within this Colony, or subjecting them to be tryed by commissioners or any court constituted by act of Parliament or otherwise within this Colony in a summary way, without a jury, is unconstitutional and subversive of the liberties and rights of the free subjects of this Colony.

7. That any Harbour or Port duly opened and constituted cannot be shut up and discharged but by an act of the legislature of the Province or Colony in which such port or harbour is situated without subverting the rights and liberties and destroying the property of his Majesty's subjects.

8. That the late act of Parliament inflicting pains and penalties on the town of Boston, by blocking up their harbour, is a precedent justly alarming to the British Colonies in America, and wholly inconsistent with and subversive of their constitutional rights and liberties.

[386] 9. That whenever his Majesty's service shall require the aid of the inhabitants of this Colony, the same fixed principles of loyalty as well as self-preservation, which have hitherto induced us fully to comply with his Majesty's requisitions, together with the deep sence we have of its being our indispensible duty, in the opinion of this House, will ever hold us under the strongest obligations which can be given or desired, most chearfully to grant his Majesty from time to time our further proportion of men and money for the defence, protection, security and other services of the British American dominions.

10. That we look upon the well-being and greatest security of this Colony to depend (under God,) on our connections with Great Britain, which is ardently wished may continue to the latest posterity; and that it is the humble opinion of this House that the constitution of this Colony being understood and practised upon as it has ever since it existed till very lately, is the surest band of union, confidence and mutual prosperity of our mother country and us, and the best foundation on which to build the good of the whole, whether considered in a civil, military or mercantile light; and of the truth of this opinion we are the more confident, as it is not founded on speculation only but has been verified in fact and by long experience found to produce, according to our extent and other circumstances, as many loyal, virtuous, industrious and well governed subjects as any part of his Majesty's dominions, and as truly zealous, and as warmly engaged to promote the best good and real glory of the grand whole which constitutes the British Empire.

11. That it is an indispensible duty which we owe to our King, our country, ourselves and our posterity, by all lawful ways and means in our power, to maintain, defend and preserve these our rights and liberties, and to transmit them entire and inviolate to the latest generations; and that it is our fixed, determined and unalterable resolution faithfully to discharge this our duty.

In the Lower House:

The foregoing Resolutions being read distinctly three several times and considered, were voted and passed with great unanimity. And it is further voted and requested by this House, that the same be entered on the records and remain in the files of the General Assembly of this Colony.

Test. WILLIAM WILLIAMS, Clerk D. R.

In the Upper House.

The consideration of the request of the Lower House, that the aforesaid Resolutions should be entered on the records of the Assembly &c., is referred to the General Assembly to be holden at New Haven on the second Thursday of October next.

Test. GEORGE WYLLYS, Secr'ty.

General Assembly, October second Thursday, A.D. 1774.

In the Upper House: On further consideration &c., it is agreed and consented to, that the foregoing Resolutions, according to the request of the Lower House, be entered on the records and remain on the files of the General Assembly of this Colony.

Test. GEORGE WYLLYS, Secr'ty.

The committee appointed by this Assembly at their sessions at Hartford in May last on the memorial of the Mohegan Indians, having made their report to this Assembly, and the same having been accepted and approved:

It is now resolved, That the following instructions and regulations be given, and they are hereby given, to the overseers for the time being appointed or to be appointed by this Assembly for said Mohegan Indians.

1. That the said overseers at all times treat the said Indians with paternal care and tenderness, and hold themselves obliged to assist them by their friendly and parental advice.

2ly. That the said overseers have full power and authority, and they are hereby authorized and impowered, in the name of said Indians to institute, bring forward and prosecute to final judgment and execution, any suit or action against any person or persons that shall commit any trespass on the lands or possessions of the said Mohegan Indians, and shall be accountable for any sum or sums of money they may recover.

3ly. If any Indian shall trespass upon the lands, goods or possessions of any other Indian, upon complaint thereof made to said overseers they, or any two of them, are hereby ordered and directed to notify the parties to appear before [387] them at such time and place as they shall appoint, when and where they shall proceed to hear and determine the case between them, and award such damages as they shall think just and reasonable to the party injured; and if the person adjudged to pay damages shall neglect or refuse to pay the same, the said overseers are hereby impowered to stop so much of the then next dividend of rent-money belonging to such person so refusing, and pay and deliver the same over to him or them to whom the same may be awarded, in satisfaction of such award.

4ly. When it shall so happen that any particular Indian or Indians shall want to take up any land for improvement in severalty, such person or persons shall apply to said overseers, who are hereby impowered to set out by meets and bounds to such person or persons such a quantity of land for improvement as they shall think just and reasonable; and whoever shall enter on any land without the approbation of said overseers shall be deemed trespassers.

5ly. And whereas since the death of their late sachem and their declining to choose a successor there will be money due for rent of lands to the said Indians as a common and undivided interest, the said overseers are hereby directed to distribute the same to and among the families of said Indians, after deducting such sums as the said Indians shall agree upon or shall be found necessary for the relief of the poor among them and other public charges, and so from time to time hereafter as they shall have the common interest in their hands, observing as much as may be an equality among the families, and where any receive more benefit in the improvement of the land, it shall be considered in the distribution of the rent money.

6ly. And no person to cut or carry away any timber, wood or stones, except for their own buildings, firing and fences, without liberty from the overseers, upon the penalty said overseers shall lay upon them, not exceeding for each offence treble the value of the timber, wood or stone so cut or carried away.

Upon the petition of John Hartell of New London and others his creditors, shewing to this Assembly that in June last he, the said Hartell, loaded a sloop for the West Indies, and in going out of the harbour in New London she was providentially lost, whereby he is rendered unable to pay his just debts; that about five sixths in number and about nine tenths in value of his creditors have agreed to give him a letter of licence for ten years without interest, to enable him to go into business again and at the expiration of that time to pay all his just debts, but some few of his creditors refuse any composition with him; praying that his person and estate may be protected from arrests or being liable to pay his said debts for the term of ten years, according to the agreement of the major part of said Hartell's creditors; as per petition on file: Resolved by this Assembly, that said Hartell be and he is hereby protected from any suit, judgment or execution, or imprisonment for or on account of any debt from him now due and owing; and no judgment shall be rendered in any court of law or equity within this Colony for the recovery of any of said debts, but from any recovery of all and every such debts his said creditors shall all be secluded for and during the term of ten years from the second day of July, 1774. And the estate of said John shall not be liable to be taken in execution or be attached for the payment or securing any such debts to his said creditors during said term, and no future interest on any of said debts which shall arise during said ten years shall be recovered of said John after the expiration of said term of ten years.

Upon the petition of Nathan Douglas of New London, praying for an act of insolvency &c., as per petition on file: Resolved by this Assembly, that the consideration of this petition be referred to the General Assembly to be holden at Hartford in May next, and that the body and estate of the petitioner be exempted from arrest until the rising of the Assembly in May next, and that the suits at law already commenced against him shall not be affected thereby.

Upon the petition of Ephraim Pect of Stratford, shewing to this Assembly that he is largely indebted to divers persons, both in this Colony as well as to persons living out of it, and that by a series of misfortunes and accidents that have happened to him in the course of his business he is and has become insolvent, and that he has been striving to the utmost of his power to get into circumstances to do justice to his [388] creditors, but that being || incumbered with a large and chargeable family, and his debts being principally on interest, he finds all his endeavours do not avail him, but that his circumstances rather grow worse, and that he has acquainted his creditors herewith, and from a sincere desire to do them all the justice in his power he has offered to deliver up to their use all his estate, except the necessities for upholding life, if they would accept it and discharge him, and that the major part of his creditors were willing so to do but were hindered therefrom by only a few of his creditors; thereupon praying for relief, as per petition on file; and they the said refusing creditors being cited to shew reason, if any they had, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted, and they being here publickly called appeared not,

but the major part in number and value of the creditors of said Peet by a writing under their hands subjoined to said petition desired that the same might be granted: Resolved by this Assembly, that Messrs. John Brooks, Abraham Tomlinson and Isaac Nichols, all of Stratford, be and they are hereby appointed trustees, to receive and take into their hands all the estate and credits of said Peet, of whatsoever nature and kind they are, to and for the use and benefit of his creditors; and that they shall proceed therewith, and in the settlement of said Peet's debts, and in the collecting and disposing of his estate, according to the late law of this Colony entitled An act for preventing fraud in debtors and for securing the effects of insolvent debtors for the use of their creditors and for the equitable division of the estates and effects of such debtors to and among their creditors; and that upon said Peet's making, executing and delivering to said trustees a legal grant, conveyance and assignment of all his estate in possession, remainder and reversion, both real and personal, in law and equity, the necessities for upholding life only excepted, to be allowed by said trustees, to and for the use and benefit of his creditors, he shall be, and he is hereby declared to be, released, freed and discharged as to his person from all the claims, debts and demands of any and all his creditors, and that his person may not at any time hereafter be any way taken, attached, arrested or restrained for and on account of any debt which he now owes to any person that is a party to said petition, but whatever estate he shall hereafter acquire shall be liable to such demands.

Whereas Charles Caldwell of Hartford hath preferred his petition against James Caldwell, praying for relief in sundry matters as therein alledged, and the same cannot now be heard or determined &c.: Resolved by this Assembly, that said petition be and the same is hereby continued to the General Assembly to be holden at Hartford in May next.

Upon the petition of Jonathan Metcalf, William Metcalf, Samuel Huntington and Hannah Huntington his wife, and John Huntington of Lebanon, and Peter Pratt late of Sharon now of Philips Patent, against Zebulon Badcock* of Sharon, preferred to this Assembly in May, 1773, shewing that said Zebulon Badcock brought his action of disseizin against Benajah Geer to the county court held at Windham the fourth Tuesday of June, 1758, demanding the seizin and possession of about sixty-six acres of land lying in Coventry, described in said writ, in which action said Badcock recovered final judgment against said Geer before the superior court held at Windham the third Tuesday of March, 1759, on the plea of no wrong nor disseizin; that the petitioners sold to Daniel Church and said Church to said Geer before the year 1758, about thirty acres, parcel of said sixty-six acres of land, to which they had a good title; that said Geer hath been evicted of the whole lands demanded in said writ because he made no severance in his defence; that he afterward brought his action of covenant against the petitioners and recovered a large sum in damages &c.; praying that they, as trustees to said Geer, might have liberty of a new trial of said action &c.; on which petition a committee have been appointed and have reported &c., as per petition and report on file, which report is accepted and approved: And it is thereupon resolved by this Assembly, that the petitioners, as vouchees to said Geer, have, and they have hereby granted to them, a new tryal of said cause as to all the lands contained in their said [389] || deed to said Church, before the superior court to be held at Windham in and for the county of Windham the third Tuesday of March, 1775, and they are hereby enabled to defend in said cause as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as said Geer might or could do, and from time to time to conduct and manage said suit, as far as regards the lands in said deed to said Church, as fully and in the same manner as they might have done if said action had been brought against them; and the superior court is hereby enabled and directed from time to time to take cognizance of said cause and any proceedings therein to be had or moved by said Badcock or the petitioners, as fully and effectually as they might or could by law have done on the application of either of the parties to said suit; and that all proceedings hat are relative to or dependent upon said cause be staid until the final issue and determination of said suit and proceedings thereon; and that in case judgment shall be rendered in favour of said Geer in said suit of said Badcock against said Geer so far as regards said lands in said deed to said Church, that said judgment in favour of said Geer against the petitioners shall become vacate and no execution thereon granted or recovery had on any proceedings consequent thereupon; and all legal costs shall be allowed and tax'd by said superior court on the final issue of said cause now depending.

Upon the petition of Richard Bushnell of Norwich, against Ebenezer Fitch of Norwich, and others, praying for a new tryal in a certain action of partition already settled and determined in the law as mentioned in said petition, upon which a committee was appointed by this Assembly in May last, who have examined into the matters alledged in said petition and made their report thereon to this Assembly in favour of the petitionees, which report is accepted and approved of by this Assembly: Resolved by this Assembly, that the petitioner shall take nothing by his petition. Cost allowed petitionee is £11 16 5. Ex. granted Nov. 5th, 1774.

Upon the petition of Lucy Meach of Preston, against Joshua Meach, preferred to this Assembly in May last, Messrs. William Hillhouse, Elisha Lothrop, Esq^r, and Capt. William Hubbard were appointed a committee to hear, examine and report, but not having yet reported, therefore: Resolved by this Assembly, that William Hillhouse, Elisha Lathrop and Thomas Mumford, Esq^{rs}, be and they are hereby appointed a committee with the same powers and directions as said former committee had, to examine &c. the matters alledged in said petition.

Upon the memorial of Luther Shepard, executor of the last will and testament of Joseph Shepard, shewing that said testator in and by said will gave to his daughter Mary a legacy of forty pounds, lawful money, for her portion in his estate, which is the whole he gave her; that there is no estate to satisfy said sum to her but by sale of the real estate of said testator; praying for liberty to sell the same &c.: Resolved by this Assembly, that the memorialist be and he is hereby authorized and impowered, to sell so much of the real estate of said deceas'd as shall be sufficient to pay and satisfy said sum to the said Mary with the incident charges of sale; taking the advice of the court of probate for the district of Hartford therein.

A confession and recantation of torism by Capt. Dibble, dated September 26th, 1775, was published in the newspapers. American Archives, III, 812.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 1775.

In the House of Representatives of the Colony of Connecticut, assembled at New Haven.

Whereas our brethren of the town of Boston have long suffered and are yet suffering under the hand of oppression, grievous and unparalleled hardships and distresses, in consequence of their resolution to support the great principles of constitutional liberty ; and having endured and yet enduring those sufferings in the common cause of America with most exemplary fortitude and magnanimity ; the principles of humanity and justice to ourselves and them require that they should not be left to sink under the weight of burdens which without assistance may become absolutely insupportable.

And although many donations have been made them by this and the other Colonies, yet upon authentic intelligence it appears they are inadequate to the real distresses in which thousands of their innocent and virtuous inhabitants are involved by means as aforesaid.

This House, taking the matters aforesaid into their serious consideration, do resolve, That it be and is hereby earnestly recommended to the several towns in this Colony, to continue cheerfully and liberally to contribute to the relief of their suffering brethren in said town, according to the several abilities which Divine Providence has given them ; esteeming it an incumbent duty and an acceptable service in the sight of God and their country.

By order of the House, WILLIAM WILLIAMS, Speaker.

New Haven, March, 1775.

MY LORD : I duly received your Lordship's letter of the 10th of December last, enclosing his Most Gracious Majesty's speech to his Parliament and the addresses in answer thereunto, which I have taken the earliest opportunity to lay before the General Assembly of the Colony, and am now to return you their thanks for this communication.

It is, my Lord, with the deepest concern and anxiety, that we contemplate the unhappy dissensions which have taken place between the Colonies and Great Britain, which must be attended with the most fatal consequences to both, unless speedily terminated. We consider the interests of the two countries as inseparable, and are shocked at the idea of any disunion between them. We wish for nothing so much as a speedy and happy settlement upon constitutional grounds, and cannot apprehend why it might not be effected if proper steps were taken. It is certainly an object of that importance as to merit the attention of every wise and good man, and the accomplishment of it would add lustre to the first character upon earth.

The origin and progress of these unhappy disputes we need not point out to you : they are perfectly known to your Lordship. From apprehensions on one side, and jealousies, fears and distresses on the other, fomented and increased by the representations of artful and designing men, unfriendly to the liberties of America, they have risen to that alarming height at which we now see them, threatening the most essential prejudice, if not entire ruin, to the whole Empire. On the one hand, we do assure your Lordship that we do not wish to weaken or impair the authority of the British Parliament in any matters essential to the welfare and happiness of the whole Empire. On the other, it will be admitted that it is our duty, and that we should be even highly culpable, if we should not claim and maintain the constitutional rights and liberties derived to us as men and Englishmen; as the descendants of Britons and members of an Empire whose fundamental principle is the liberty and security of the subject. British supremacy and American liberty are not incompatible with each other. They have been seen to exist and flourish together for more than a century. What now renders them inconsistent? Or, if anything be further necessary to ascertain the one or limit the other, why may it not be amicably adjusted, every occasion and ground of future controversy be removed, and all that has unfortunately passed be buried in perpetual oblivion?

The good people of this Colony, my Lord, are unfeignedly loyal and firmly attached to his Majesty's person, family and government. They are willing and ready freely as they have formerly most cheerfully done upon every requisition made to them, to contribute to the utmost of their abilities to the support of his Majesty's government, and to devote their lives and fortunes to his service; and in the last war did actually expend in his Majesty's service more than four hundred thousand pounds sterling beyond what they received any compensation for. But the unlimited powers lately claimed by the British Parliament drove them to the borders of despair. These powers, carried into execution, will deprive them of all property, and are incompatible with every idea of civil liberty. They must hold all that they possess at the will of others, and will have no property which they can, voluntary and as freemen, lay at the foot of the throne as a mark of their affection and devotion to his Majesty's service.

Why, my Lord, should our fellow-subjects in Great Britain alone enjoy the high honour and satisfaction of presenting their free gifts to their Sovereign? Or, if this be a distinction in which they will permit none to participate with them, yet, in point of honour, it should be founded on the gift of their own property, and not of that of their fellow-subjects in the more distant parts of the Empire.

It is with particular concern and anxiety that we see the unhappy situation of our fellow-subjects in the town of Boston in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay, where we behold many thousands of his Majesty's virtuous and loyal subjects reduced to the utmost distress by the operation of the Port Act, and the whole Province thrown into a state of anarchy and confusion by the Act for changing the constitution of the Province and depriving them of some of their charter-rights. We are at a loss to conceive how the destruction of the East India Company's tea could be a just or reasonable ground for punishing so severely thousands of innocent people who had no hand in that transaction, and that even without giving them any opportunity to be heard in their own defence.

[And we submit whether the conditions of their being restored to their former privileges are not becoming impracticable under their present circumstances, since the town is not by law authorized to tax the inhabitants for such a purpose, and the Province is not permitted the privilege of the Assembly; nor, they conceive, could they constitutionally hold one until their charter-rights are restored. Indeed, how can they constitutionally give his Majesty any security for their future good behaviour but by their Representatives in General Assembly. Were the acts for shutting up their port and altering the government of the Province repealed, the armed force withdrawn from Boston, and the people put upon a footing to act freely and constitutionally, we cannot doubt but that as they have upon all former occasions shown themselves to be a generous, brave and loyal people, they would comply with any reasonable requisition that should be made by his Majesty.]

Give us leave to recommend to your Lordship's most serious and candid attention the unhappy case of that distressed people, and in effect of all the Colonies, whose fate seems to be involved in theirs, and who are therefore most anxiously distressed for them. Permit us to hope, that by your Lordship's kind and benevolent interposition, some wise and happy plan will be devised, which may relieve us from our present anxieties and restore that harmony between Great Britain and the Colonies which we all most ardently wish for, and which alone can render us truly happy.

I am, My Lord, in behalf of the Governor and Company of Connecticut, my Lord, your Lordship's most obedient and most humble servant.

* The original resolve, Revolutionary War, I, 122, is in the handwriting of Roger Sherman. A narrative of the proceedings of the ambassadors may be found in Beardsley's Life and Times of William Samuel Johnson, 109-112. The Assembly had adjourned before their return. Governor Gage had written to Gov. Trumbull, April 29th, enclosing a circumstantial account of the "attack that happened on the 19th April 1775, on his Majesty's troops by a number of the people of the Province of the Massachusetts Bay," but the letter had not arrived before Dr. Johnson and Mr. Wolcott set out on their journey. The letter of Governor Trumbull to Governor Gage, with the reply of the latter, are printed at the close of the record of this session. The embassy gave some temporary uneasiness to the Massachusetts Provincial Congress.

Joseph Trumbull and Mr. Amasa Keyes be and they are hereby appointed a committee to procure all necessary provisions for the inhabitants of this Colony who have gone to the relief of the people aforesaid, and that they superintend the delivery out and apportioning the same among them till this Assembly shall consider what measures are proper to be taken relative thereto and give orders accordingly.

GOVERNOR TRUMBULL TO GENERAL GAGE.

[From American Archives, 4th series, ii, 433-4.]

HARTFORD, April 28, 1775.

Sir: The alarming situation of publick affairs in this country, and the late unfortunate transactions in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay, have induced the General Assembly of this Colony, now sitting in this place, to appoint a committee of their body to wait upon your Excellency, and to desire me, in their name, to write to you, relative to those very interesting matters.

The inhabitants of this Colony are intimately connected with the people of your Province, and esteem themselves bound by the strongest ties of friendship, as well as of common interest, to regard with attention whatever concerns them. You will not, therefore, be surprised that your first arrival at Boston with a body of his Majesty's troops, for the declared purpose of carrying into execution certain acts of Parliament, which, in their apprehension, were unconstitutional and oppressive, should have given the good people of this Colony a very just and general alarm. Your subsequent proceedings in fortifying the town of Boston, and other military preparations, greatly increased their apprehensions for the safety of their friends and brethren. They could not be unconcerned spectators of their sufferings in that which they esteemed the common cause of this country: but the late hostile and secret inroads of some of the troops under your command into the heart of the country, and the violences they have committed, have driven them almost to a state of desperation. They feel now, not only for their friends, but for themselves and their dearest interests and connections.

*Theophilus Morgan of Killingworth applied by letter of April 30th to the Governor for permission for his vessel to sail from Guilford to the West Indies, having on board lumber, twenty-three oxen, and one horse. Both Houses concurred in desiring the Governor to grant a permit accordingly. American Archives, II, 449.

We wish not to exaggerate: we are not sure of every part of our information, but by the best intelligence that we have yet been able to obtain, the late transaction was a most unprovoked attack upon the lives and property of his Majesty's subjects; and it is represented to us that such outrages have been committed as would disgrace even barbarians, and much more Britons, so highly famed for humanity as well as bravery.

It is feared, therefore, that we are devoted to destruction, and that you have it in command and intention to ravage and desolate the country. If this is not the case, permit us to ask, why have these outrages been committed? Why is the town of Boston now shut up? To what end are all the hostile preparations that are daily making? And why do we continually hear of fresh destinations of troops to this country? The people of this Colony, you may rely upon it, abhor the idea of taking up arms against the troops of their sovereign, and dread nothing so much as the horrors of a civil war. But, sir, at the same time we beg leave to assure your Excellency, that as they apprehend themselves justified by the principle of self defence, they are most firmly resolved to defend their rights and privileges to the last extremity; nor will they be restrained from giving aid to their brethren if any unjustifiable attack is made upon them.

Be so good, therefore, as to explain yourself upon this most important subject, so far as is consistent with your duty to our common sovereign. Is there no way to prevent this unhappy dispute from coming to extremities? Is there no alternative but absolute submission, or the desolations of war? By that humanity which constitutes so amiable a part of your character, and for the honour of our sovereign and the glory of the British empire, we entreat you to prevent it if possible. Surely it is to be hoped that the temperate wisdom of the Empire might even yet find expedients to restore peace, that so all parts of the empire may enjoy their particular rights, honours and immunities. Certainly this is an event most devoutly to be wished; and will it not be consistent with your duty to suspend the operations of war on your part, and enable us on ours to quiet the minds of the people, at least till the result of some further deliberations may be known?

The importance of the occasion will no doubt sufficiently apologize for the earnestness with which we address you, and any seeming impropriety which may attend it, as well as induce you to give us the most explicit and favourable answer in your power.

I am, with great esteem and respect, in behalf of the General Assembly,

Sir, your most obedient servant.

To his Excellency Thomas Gage, Esq.

GENERAL GAGE TO GOVERNOR TRUMBULL.

[From American Archives, 4th series, ii, 482-3.]

BOSTON, May 3, 1775.

Sir: I am to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 28th April last, in behalf of the General Assembly of your Colony, relative to the alarming situation of publick affairs in this country, and the late transactions in this Province.

That this situation is greatly alarming, and that these transactions are truly unfortunate, are truths to be regretted by every friend to America. and by every well-wisher for the peace, prosperity, and happiness of this Province. The intimate connexion and strong ties of friendship between the inhabitants of your Colony and the deluded people of this Province cannot fail of inducing the former to interpose their good offices to convince the latter of the impropriety of their past conduct, and to persuade them to return to their allegiance, and to seek redress of any supposed grievances in those decent and constitutional methods in which alone they can hope to be successful.

That troops should be employed for the purpose of protecting the magistrates in the execution of their duty, when opposed with violence, is not a new thing in the English or any other government. That any acts of the British Parliament are unconstitutional or oppressive I am not to suppose; if any such there are, in the apprehension of the people of this Province, it had been happy for them if they had sought relief only in the way which the constitution, their reason, and their interest, pointed out.

You cannot wonder at my fortifying the town of Boston, or making any other military preparations, when you are assured that, previous to my taking these steps, such were the open threats, and such the warlike preparations throughout this Province, as rendered it my indispensable duty to take every precaution in my power for the protection of his Majesty's troops under my command against all hostile attempts.

The intelligence you seem to have received, relative to the late excursion of a body of troops into the country, is altogether injurious, and contrary to the true state of facts. The troops disclaim with indignation the barbarous outrages of which they are accused, so contrary to their known humanity. I have taken the greatest pains to discover if any were committed, and have found examples of their tenderness, both to the young and the old: but no vestige of their cruelty or barbarity. It is very possible that in firing into houses from whence they were fired upon, that old people, women, or children, may have suffered: but if any such thing has happened, it was in their defence, and undesigned.

I have no command to ravage and desolate the country; and were it my intention, I have had pretence to begin it upon the sea-ports, who are at the mercy of the fleet. For your better information, I enclose you a narrative of that affair, taken from gentlemen of indisputable honour and veracity, who were eye-witnesses of all the transactions of that day. The leaders here have taken pains to prevent any account of this affair getting abroad but such as they have thought proper to publish themselves; and to that end the post has been stopped, the mails broke open and letters taken out; and by these means the most injurious and inflammatory accounts have been spread throughout the continent, which has served to deceive and inflame the minds of the people.

When the resolves of the Provincial Congress breathed nothing but war; when those two great and essential prerogatives of the King, the levying of troops and disposing of the publick moneys, were wrested from him; and when magazines were forming by an assembly of men unknown to the constitution, for the declared purpose of levying war against the King, you must acknowledge it was my duty, as it was the dictate of humanity, to prevent, if possible, the calamities of a civil war, by destroying such magazines. This, and this alone, I attempted.

You ask, why is the town of Boston now shut up? I can only refer you for an answer to those bodies of armed men who now surround the town and prevent all access to it. The hostile preparations you mention are such as the conduct of the people of this Province has rendered it prudent to make, for the defence of those under my command. You assure me the people of your Colony abhor the idea of taking arms against the troops of their sovereign. I wish the people of this Province (for their own sakes) could make the same declaration.

You inquire, is there no way to prevent this unhappy dispute from coming to extremities? Is there no alternative but absolute submission or the desolations of war? I answer, I hope there is. The King and Parliament seem to hold out terms of reconciliation, consistent with the honour and interest of Great Britain and the rights and privileges of the Colonies. They have mutually declared their readiness to attend to any real grievances of the Colonies, and to afford them every just and reasonable indulgence which shall, in a dutiful and constitutional manner, be laid before them; and his Majesty adds, it is his ardent wish that this disposition may have a happy effect on the temper and conduct of his subjects in America. I must add, likewise, the Resolution of the 27th February, on the grand dispute of taxation and revenue, leaving it to the Colonies to tax themselves, under certain conditions. Here is surely a foundation for an accommodation, to people who wish a reconciliation rather than a destructive war between countries so nearly connected by the ties of blood and interest: but I fear the leaders of this Province have been, and still are, intent only on shedding blood.

I am much obliged by your favourable sentiments of my personal character, and assure you, as it has been my constant wish and endeavour hitherto, so I shall continue to exert my utmost endeavour to protect all his Majesty's liege subjects under my care in their persons and property. You ask, whether it will not be consistent with my duty to suspend the operations of war on my part? I have commenced no operations of war but defensive; such you cannot wish me to suspend, while I am surrounded by an armed country, who have already begun, and threaten further to prosecute an offensive war, and are now violently depriving me, the King's troops, and many others of the King's subjects under my immediate protection, of all the conveniences and necessities of life, with which the country abounds. But it must quiet the minds of all reasonable people, when I assure you that I have no disposition to injure or molest quiet and peaceable subjects: but on the contrary shall esteem it my greatest happiness to defend and protect them against every species of violence and oppression.

I am, with great regard and esteem, Sir,

Your obedient and humble servant,

THOS. GAGE.

The Hon. Governour Trumbull.

PETITION to the KING, dated 7th June, 1661. No. 8.

KING CHARLES the Second, by his Letters Patent under the Great Seal of England, ordained, constituted and declared John Winthrop, John Mason, Samuel Wyllys, and sixteen others by Name, and all such others as then were, or thereafter should be admitted and made free of the Company and Society of the Colony of Connecticut in America, should from Time to Time, and forever thereafter, be one Body Corporate and Politick in Fact and in Name, by the Name of The Governor and Company of the English Colony of Connecticut, in New-England, in America, with certain Powers, Privileges and Authorities; therein was granted to them and their Successors, all that Part of his Dominions in New-England in America, bounden on the East by Narragansett-River, commonly called Narragansett-Bay, where the said River falleth into the Sea; and on the North by the Line of the Massachusetts Plantation; and on the South by the Sea; and in Longitude as the Line of the Massachusetts Colony, running from East to West, that is to say, from the said Narragansett-Bay on the East, to the South-Sea on the West, with the Islands thereunto adjoining, together with all the firm Lands, &c.—To have and to hold the same unto the said Governor and Company, their Successors and Assigns forever, upon Trust, and to and for the Use and Benefit of themselves and their Associates, Freemen of the said Colony, their Heirs and Assigns, to be holden of the King, his Heirs and Successors, as of his Manor of East-Greenwich, in free and common Soccage, and not in Capite, or by Knights Service—Yielding and paying only the fifth Part of the Ore of Gold and Silver, which shall be there gotten, had or obtained, in Lieu of all Services, Duties and Demands whatsoever.

By this Charter, the two Jurisdictions aforesaid, viz. Connecticut and New-Haven, were united, and all the Lands aforesaid are granted to them, saving what might be then actually possessed or inhabited by any other Christian Prince or State, &c. as is expressly excepted by the Proviso in the Patent of King JAMES the First, before-mentioned, which it is conceived was the Foundation of the Crown Title to New-York.

March 12.

King CHARLES the Second, by his Letters Patent under the Great Seal of England, “gave and “granted unto his Royal Brother JAMES Duke of “York, all that Part of the main Land in New-England, “beginning at a certain Place called and known by the “Name of Saint Croise, next adjoining to New-Scotland, “in America ; and from thence extending along the “Sea Coast unto a Place called Pennequie, or Penequid, “and so up the River thereof to the furthestmost Head “of the same, as it tendeth Northward, and extending “from thence to the River Kenebequie, and upwards “by the shortest Course to the River called Canada “Northward; and also all that Island or Islands commonly called by the several Name or Names of “Mattawucks or Long-Island, situate, lying and being “towards the West of Cape-Cod and the Narragansetts, “abutting upon the main Land between the two “Rivers there, called and known by the Names of “Connecticut and Hudson’s-River ; together also with “the said River called Hudson’s-River, and all the Land “from the West Side of Connecticut-River to the East “Side of Delaware-Bay ; and all the several Islands, “called or known by the Names of Martin’s-Vineyard “and Nantucks, otherwise Nantucket ; together with “all the Lands, Soils, Islands, &c.—And all his “Estates, Right, Title, Interest, Benefit and Advantage “Claim and Demand, of, in or to the said Lands and “Premises, or any Part or Parcel thereof.”

THE Dutch and Swedes were at that Time possessed of the Lands now belonging to the Colonies of New-York and New-Jersey, and had made considerable Plantations and Improvements there.—— Whereupon they contended, that Hudson was sent out by the Dutch East-India Company, to discover a North-West Passage to China ; and that having discovered Delaware-Bay, he proceeded to New-York, and penetrated up Hudson’s-River as far Northward as Latitude 43° — That in 1714 the States-General granted a Patent to sundry Merchants, for an exclusive Trade on that River.—That the same Year they built a Fort on the West Side of the same, near Albany.—That this Claim being prior to the Grant made to the Council of Plymouth, these Lands did not pass to said Council, and consequently not to the Colony of Connecticut by the former Patent, nor by King CHARLES the Second's renewed Charter, granted and made in April 1662.

AT this Time King CHARLES the Second meditated sending a Force to cause the Dutch to surrender the Lands by them possessed in his Dominions, as aforesaid: and granted the same by his Letters Patent to his Royal Highness the Duke of York, in Manner before-mentioned: He also gave a Commission to Colonel Richard Nicholls, to dispossess the Dutch of the Territories by them claimed, and called New-Netherlands; and to take Possession of the same for the Duke of York, as granted to him in and by the said Patent. ——— This Design he came upon, and accordingly executed the same in August. Upon which it became necessary to settle the Extent of the Dutch Claim Eastward, and thereby to ascertain the Bounds and Limits of his Royal Highness the Duke's Patent, and the Patent of Connecticut. For this Purpose,

HIS MAJESTY had constituted and appointed Col. Richard Nicholls, Sir Robert Carr, Knight, George Cartwright and Samuel Marverick, his Commissioners to visit the New-England Colonies, with full Power and Authority to hear, receive, examine and determine all Complaints and Appeals, and proceed in all Things for providing for and settling the Peace of said Country; who did accordingly settle and determine as follows, viz.

“By Virtue of His Majesty's Commission, We have “heard the Difference about the Bounds of the Patent “granted to his Royal Highness the Duke of York, “and to his Majesty's Colony of Connecticut; and “having deliberately considered the Reasons alledged “by Mr. Allen, Senr. Mr. Gold, Mr. Richards and Capt. “Winthrop, appointed by The Assembly held at Hartford the 13th October 1664, to accompany John “Winthrop, Esq; the Governor of his Majesty's Colony “of Connecticut to New-York, and by Mr. Howell and “Capt. Young, why the said Long-Island should be “under the Government of Connecticut, which are too “long here to be recited.— We do declare and order “the southern Bounds of his Majesty's Colony of Connecticut is the Sea, and that Long-Island is to be under

“the Government of his Royal Highness the Duke of “York, as is expressed by plain Words in said Charters
 “respectively.—And also by Virtue of his Majesty’s
 “Commission, and by the Consent of both the Govern“ors and the Gentlemen above-named. We do also “order and declare, that the Creek or River which is “called Monoromock, which is reputed to be about “twelve Miles to the East of West-Chester, and a Line “drawn from the East Point or Side where the fresh “Water falls into the Salt at High-Water Mark North-“North-West to the Line of the Massachusetts, be the “Western Bounds of the said Colony of Connecticut—
 “And all Plantations lying Westward of that Creek
 “and Line so drawn, shall be under his Royal High-“ness’s Government; and all the Plantations lying “Eastward of that Creek and Line, to be under the “Government of Connecticut.”

To this the Commissioners therein mentioned from Connecticut subscribed in the Words following, viz.
 “We under-written, on Behalf of the Colony of Con- “necticut, have assented unto the Determination of his “Majesty’s Commissioners, in Relation to the Bounds
 “and Limits of his Royal Highness the Duke’s Patent,
 “and the Patent of Connecticut.”

COL. NICHOLLS remained in the Administration of the Duke’s Government three Years, which was chiefly taken up in examining and settling the antient Dutch Grants.

 Sir William
Penn’s Patent.

KING CHARLES the Second, by his Letters Patent, gave and granted unto “Sir William Penn, his Heirs
 “and Assigns. all that Tract or Parcel of Land in “America, with all the Islands therein contained, as

“the same is bounded on the East of Delaware-River,
 “from twelve Miles Northward of New-Castle Town, “unto the three and fortieth Degree of Northern “Latitude, if the said River doth extend so far North“wards, then by the said River so far as it doth extend,
 “and from the Head of the said River the Eastern “Bounds are to be determined by a Meridian Line to “be drawn from the Head of the said River, unto the “said three and fortieth Degree — The said Lands
 “to extend Westwards five Degrees in Longitude, to “be computed from the said Eastern Bounds.— And
 “the said Lands to be bounded on the North by the “Beginning of the three and fortieth Degree of North“ern Latitude, and on the South by a Circle drawn at “twelve Miles Distance from New-Castle Northwards
 “and Westwards unto the Beginning of the fortieth
 “Degree of Northern Latitude, and then by a straight “Line Westward to the Limits of Longitude above-“mentioned — To have, hold, possess and enjoy unto
 “the said William Penn, his Heirs and Assigns,” &c.

THE Northern Part of the Bounds and Limits of this Grant, laps on and spreads over some Parts of the Western Lands before granted to the Colony of Connecticut, and confirmed by the renewed Charter or Patent aforesaid from King CHARLES the Second, which occasions the present Enquiry.— And as the Proprietaries of Pennsylvania principally object to the Title of Connecticut, the Settlement aforesaid with the Province of New-York, as fixing and limiting the Western Extention of the Colony of Connecticut. It is necessary to exhibit the Foundation and Reason of that Settlement, and all that has been done thereon.

THE SUM IS,

THAT King JAMES the First, by Letters Patent in the eighteenth Year of his Reign, gave the Name of New-England in America, to that Part of the American Continent, in Breadth from the fortieth Degree to the forty-eighth Degree of Northerly Latitude, inclusively, and in Length from Sea to Sea, with all the Islands, &c. in both Seas; and incorporated the Duke of Lenox and divers other Persons, by the Name of the Council established at Plymouth, in the County of Devon, for planting, ordering, ruling and governing of New-England in America; and granted to them the Lands, &c. therein described, with certain Powers, Authorities, Privileges and Immunities therein specified, excepting such Part of the said Lands or any the Premises as were then actually possessed or inhabited by any other Christian Prince or State, &c. meaning palpably by the said Grant, together with the Grant to the Southern of the Virginia Company, to support the Claim of the Crown of England, and for that Purpose to convey to the Grantees the Whole of North-America, except the Parts so actually possessed.

UNDER the Authority and Grants of said Council established at Plymouth, divers Settlements were made, viz. the Colonies of New-Plymouth, Massachusetts-Bay and Connecticut.

KING CHARLES the Second, by his renewed Charter or Letters Patent in the fourteenth Year of his Reign, incorporated the Colony of Connecticut, by the Name of The Governor and Company of the English Colony of Connecticut, in New-England, in America, gave the Powers and Authorities, and granted the Lands agreeable to the Bounds and Limits in the said Patent mentioned and described. — The French at Saint Croix, &c. the Dutch and Swedes at Hudson's-Bay and Delaware, had taken Possession of, and claimed the Lands at those Places, before the Charter of JAMES the First, and the same being so possessed by another Christian Prince or State, were thereby saved out of the said Patent of JAMES the First — Whereupon King CHARLES the Second granted the same to his Royal Highness the Duke of York — On the Dutch, &c. being dispossessed, it became necessary to settle the Lines and Limits of the Land granted to the Duke of York, which had been so possessed and inhabited, that thereby the Bounds and Limits of the Duke's Patent, and the Patent of Connecticut might be settled; which was done accordingly.

THE Lands lying Eastward of the Province of New-York had been obtained by Conquests, Settlements and Grants made over and by the aboriginal native Proprietors, and the Propriety and Right of Government in and over the same was then fully ascertained — Those lying Westward of the said Province, remained in the Possession and under the Government of the original Indian Proprietors, who were unwilling to sell and remove from them, or any of them, and which the Governors of Connecticut were less solicitous to purchase, because they had not 'till lately conveyed Country on the East of New-York Line with Inhabitants. — But the Indians have lately conveyed Part of the Lands to the Westward of any Lands heretofore occupied by the Dutch or any foreign Nation, to certain Individuals in the Colony of Connecticut, and others, called the Susquehannah Company, and other Part the said Indians have sold to the Proprietaries of Pennsylvania, and resigned the Residue to the Crown. — As the Boundaries of the Lands actually possessed and inhabited by the Dutch and Swedes, and granted to the Duke of York as aforesaid, both on the East and West Sides, are now settled, or otherwise sufficiently described or known; It is conceived on the Part of the Governor and Company of Connecticut, who have not been wanting in settling the whole Country comprised in their Grant as fast as the Nature of Things would permit, that all the Rest and Residue remained to them, according to the Bounds described in their Patent; and that the sole Right of Preemption, with the Powers and Authorities of Government, after the Country shall be purchased of the Indians, was in the Crown to grant, by the before-mentioned Letters Patent, and were accordingly amply and fully granted to the Governor and Company of Connecticut as aforesaid, and now remain in them, the Settlement aforesaid with New-York notwithstanding.

ON the Contrary, the Proprietaries of Pennsylvania insist that they have the sole Right of Purchase and Government by Virtue of their Grant aforesaid, which passed nineteen Years after the last renewed Charter to the Governor and Company of Connecticut, who they alledged are estopped by the said Settlement, with New-York; and Disputes having arisen thereon,

QUESTION I. Do the Words actually possessed and occupied, extend to Lands on the West Side of the Dutch Settlements, which were at the Time of the Grant of JAMES the First in a perfect Wilderness State, but divided from the English Settlements by the actual Possession of the Dutch?— And did the Grant to the Council of Plymouth mean to except in Favor of Foreigners, not only what they had actually planted, but all to the Westward of such Plantation?

We are of opinion that the Words actually possessed and enjoyed, do not extend to Lands on the West Side of the Dutch Settlements, which were at the Time of the Grant of JAMES the First in a Wilderness State, though divided from the English Settlements by the actual Possession of the Dutch. And that the Grant to the Council of Plymouth did not mean to except in Favor of any One, any Thing to the Westward of such Plantations.

Quest. II. Have not the said Governor and Company of the Colony of Connecticut the Right of Preemption and the Title under the Crown to the Lands aforesaid within the Limits and Bounds of their Patent aforesaid, lying Westward of the Province of New-York, and not included in the Charter of King CHARLES the Second to the Duke of York, notwithstanding the several Settlements of Boundaries between the Colony on the East and the Province on the West, made as well by Agreement between the Parties as under the Royal Authority, and notwithstanding the subsequent Charter to Sir William Penn?

The agreement between the Colony of Connecticut and the Province of New-York, can extend no further than to settle the Boundaries between the respective Parties, and has no effect upon other Claims that either of them had in other Parts; and as the Charter to Connecticut was granted but eighteen Years before that to Sir William Penn, there is no Ground to contend that the Crown could at that Period make an effectual Grant to him of that Country which had been so recently granted to others. But if the Country had been actually settled under the latter Grant, it would now be a Matter of considerable Doubt, whether the Right of the Occupiers or the Title under which they hold, could be impeached by a prior Grant, without actual Settlement.

Quest. III. What Course of Proceedings will it be legal and expedient for the Governor & Company of Connecticut to pursue on the whole State and Circumstances in this Case, in order to terminate all Disputes and Differences relative to said Lands?

In Case the Governor and Company shall in point of Prudence think it expedient to make their Claim and support it, it will be proper either amicably and in Concurrence with the Proprietaries of Pennsylvania, or in Case of the Refusal of those Proprietaries, without them to apply to the King in Council, praying his Majesty to appoint Commissioners in America to decide the Question, with the usual Power of Appeal.

APPOINTED BY THE General Assembly of this Colony,

TO TREAT WITH THE
Proprietaries of Pennsylvania,

RESPECTING THE BOUNDARIES OF THIS COLONY AND THAT PROVINCE.

NORWICH:

PRINTED BY GREEN & SPOONER, 1774.

INTRODUCTION.

THE Case having been stated, and Council of the first Eminence in Great-Britain consulted, on the Right and Title of the Governor and Company of the Colony of Connecticut, to the Lands within the Limits and Bounds of their Patent, lying Westward of the Province of New-York, notwithstanding the Settlements of Boundaries between this Colony and that Province, and notwithstanding the subsequent Charter to Sir WILLIAM PENN.

Their Opinion was given in Favor of the Right and Title of the Governor and Company to said Lands ;—and they directed the Course of Proceedings, legal and expedient for the Governor and Company of Connecticut to pursue, to be either amicably and in Concurrence with the Proprietaries of Pennsylvania, or in Case of the Refusal of those Proprietaries, without them to apply to the King and Council, praying his Majesty to appoint Commissioners in America to decide the Question with the usual Power of Appeal.

The General Assembly of the Governor and Company of the Colony of Connecticut, holden at New-Haven in October last,—Resolved to make their Claim to those Lands, and in a legal Manner to support the same.—Col. DYER, Doct. JOHNSON and Mr. STRONG, were thereupon appointed and commissioned to treat with Governor PENN, and the Agent or Agents of the Proprietaries of Pennsylvania, respecting an amicable Agreement between the Colony and the said Proprietaries, concerning the Boundaries of this Colony and the Province of Pennsylvania: But if said Proprietaries preferred joining in an Application to His Majesty for Commissioners to settle said Line, in that Case the Committee were authorised to join on Behalf of this Colony in such Application: And they were further directed to consult and agree with Governor PENN upon such Measures as would tend to preserve Peace and good Order among the Inhabitants of said Lands, and prevent mutual Violence and Contention, during the Time the Boundaries between this Colony and the Proprietaries of that Province remain undetermined.

The following Representation of the Commissioners afore-mentioned, was made to the General Assembly of the Colony of Connecticut, holden at Hartford, by Adjournment, on the second Wednesday of January 1774, relative to the subject Matter of their Commission.

REPORT, &c.

To the Honorable General Assembly of the Colony of CONNECTICUT, now holden at Hartford, in said Colony, by Adjournment.

URSuant to your Honor's Appointment, and the Nomination of the general Committee convened at Norwich, We the Subscribers, with all the Dispatch that the Situation of our private Affairs, and the advanced Season of the Year would admit of, repaired to Philadelphia, to wait upon Governor PENN, for the Purposes in the Votes and Resolutions of this Assembly in October last mentioned and directed.

WE arrived there on the 14th Day of December last; and the next Morning notified Governor PENN of our Arrival, and requested an Audience of him by the following Card;

“COL. DYER, Dr. JOHNSON, and Mr. STRONG, from Connecticut, “present their respectful Compliments to His Honor Governor PENN, and acquaint him, that they are directed by the “General Assembly of the Colony of Connecticut, to lay before him
“the Votes and Resolutions of that Assembly. relative to the “Lands contained within the Limits and Boundaries of the Charter
“of that Colony, and claimed by the Honorable Proprietaries of “Pennsylvania; and beg the Favor of him to acquaint them, when
“it may be convenient for them to wait upon him for that Purpose.
“Wednesday Morning, 15th Dec. 1773.”

THE Governor gave us the following Answer, viz.

“THE Governor presents his Compliments to Col. DYER, Dr.
“JOHNSON, and Mr. STRONG, and will be ready to receive them
“in Council at Twelve o’Clock To-Day, at his House in Chestnut- “Street.

“Wednesday Morning, Dec. 15th, 1773”

ACCORDINGLY, at the Hour appointed, we waited upon him, when he politely received us in full Council. We then delivered him His Honor the Governor's Letter, and laid before him the Votes and Resolutions of this Assembly which were committed to us, which he caused to be read by his Secretary. We then summarily stated to him, the Purport of our Message, and of those Votes and Resolutions; observing, that the Subject Matter of them properly divided itself into three distinct Questions, viz.

1st. WHETHER he would enter into a Negotiation with us, for the Purpose of settling the Limits and Boundaries between the Colony of Connecticut and the Proprietaries of Pennsylvania, and the whole Controversy relative thereto? Or if not,

2dly. WHETHER he would join with the Colony in an Application to his Majesty in Council, to appoint Commissioners to decide it? And,

3dly. CONSULT with us, and agree upon such Measures as might preserve Peace and good Order among the Inhabitants settled in the contested Country, while the Dispute should be depending?

To all which we requested distinct and express Answers.

AFTER some Conversation with his Council, he observed to us, that he apprehended he could not, with Propriety, enter into any Negotiation with us, until he was particularly acquainted with the Nature and precise Extent of the Connecticut Claim, to which he was a Stranger; and that it ought to be laid before him in Writing, &c.

To which we replied, that we had no Objection, except the Length of Time it might take up to transact the whole Affair with him in Writing; but that we apprehended he could be no Stranger to our Claim, which was a Matter of public Notoriety; that it was, to the Purpose of our Negotiation, sufficiently expressed and designated in the Votes and Resolutions of Assembly which were before him; or if it was expedient to state it more precisely and in Writing, that it was necessary that the Requisition should also be in writing; which he agreed was right, and that he would accordingly make a written Requisition. Upon which we withdrew, and the next Morning received the following Letter.

“Philadelphia, the 15th of December, 1773.

“GENTLEMEN,

“I HAVE taken into Consideration the Letter you this Day delivered me from Governor TRUMBULL, and the Act of Assembly, and several Resolves of the Governor and Assembly of the Colony of Connecticut, respecting their Claim of Lands within the Province of Pennsylvania, and appointing you a Committee, with Power to treat with me and the Proprietary Agents, respecting an amicable Settlement of that Claim. As a Step previous to my treating with you on that Subject, it appears to me necessary and proper that you should lay before me, in "Writing. the precise Extent of their Claim, which I request you

"will favor me with as soon as possible, and am,

"GENTLEMEN,

"Your most obedient

"Humble Servant,

"JOHN PENN."

To which we gave this Answer;

"Philadelphia, 15th Dec. 1773.

"SIR,

"WE beg leave to return your Honor our sincere Thanks for
"the early Attention you have been pleased to give to the "Papers we had the Honor to lay before you this Morning.

"FROM those Papers it is apparent that we are directed to treat
"only upon the Claims therein mentioned, and are to negotiate
"rather a Mode of obtaining an amicable Settlement of the Contro"versy between the Colony and the Proprietaries, than an actual
"and precise Settlement of the Line and Boundaries between "them. We therefore apprehend that the Claim on the Part of "the Colony of Connecticut, is, to the Purpose of the Negotiation
"with which we are charged, sufficiently designated in the Acts of "Assembly now before you. But as we bring with us the most
"sincere Disposition to effect, if possible, an amicable Settlement
"of this Controversy, that we may give every Facility in our "Power, towards the Accomplishment of so very desirable an "Object, we will further mention to you, That the Title to the "Lands in Question, on the Part of the Colony of Connecticut, is "principally founded upon the Royal Charter to the Governor and
"Company of that Colony from his late Majesty King CHARLES
"the Second, dated at Westminster, Anno 1662; the Boundaries of "which are thus expressed; "All that Part of our Dominions in "New-England in America, bounden on the East by Narraganset-
"River, commonly called Narraganset-Bay, where the said River
"falleth into the Sea, and on the North by the Line of the Mus-
"sachusetts Plantation, and on the South by the Sea, and in Longi-
"tude as the Line of the Massachusetts Colony running from East
"to West; That is to say, from the said Narraganset-Bay on the "East, to the South-Sea on the West, with the Islands thereunto
"joining, together with all firm Lands," &c. Which Limits and "Boundaries do include a considerable Part of the Lands after-
"wards granted by the Crown to Sir WILLIAM PENN, in 1681, and
"which constitute a Part of the Province of Pennsylvania, as now
"claimed by the Proprietaries; but what Part in certain of those
"Lands are so contained within the Limits of the Patent to
"Connecticut, can be known only by actually running and ascer-
"taining the Lines of that Patent, which we conceive will be best
"done by the Commissioners mutually appointed by the Colony
"and the Honorable Proprietaries. And We on the Part of the "Colony, are now ready to agree to such Commissioners, who “shall be fully authorised to execute the same in the most effectual Manner, as soon as possible. We are at the same Time sensible, that a Doubt may arise, in what Direction the Southern Line of the Patent of Connecticut shall cross the Patent to Sir WILLIAM PENN; whether agreeable to the ancient Boundary of New-England, at the 40th Degree of N. Latitude, according to the Course of the Sea or Sound upon which the Grant to Connecticut is in Part bounded, viz. in a Course nearly W. S. W. or according to the Course of the Southern Line of the Province of the Massachusetts-Bay, which is the Northern Line of Connecticut, and is nearly East and West, we conceive may well be left to be discussed before such Commissioners, and by them decided; in which we will acquiesce, unless by mutual Concessions, to which, for the Sake of Peace, we shall not be averse, we can agree to fix precisely the Course by which that Line shall be run.

“We are, with great Truth and Esteem,

“SIR, your most obedient and most humble Servants,

“ELIPHALET DYER,

“WILLIAM-SAMUEL JOHNSON,

} Commissioners
} from the Colony
} of Connecticut.

“GOVERNOR PENN.”

AND thereto received the following Reply;

“Philadelphia, the 17th of December, 1773.

“GENTLEMEN,

“I YESTERDAY received your Favour in Answer to my Requisition that you would lay before me the precise Extent of the Claim of the Colony of Connecticut; but must own I am much disappointed to find that, instead of complying with my Request, you have only in general referred me to the Expressions of your Charter of 1662, which are by no Means determinate, and you yourselves admit to be of doubtful Interpretation.

“THE Uncertainty in the Bounds and Extent of that Charter, as well as of other of the New-England Grants, occasioned a Royal Commission to issue so early as within Two Years after the Date of your Charter, for the declared Purpose of settling the Bounds and Limits of their several Charters and Jurisdictions; in Consequence of which a North-North-West Line drawn from Mamoronick-River to the Line of the Massachusetts, was declared, and expressly fixed and established to be the Western bounds of the Colony of Connecticut; which Boundary was then solemnly assented to, ratified and confirmed by the Governor and Commissioners of the Colony.

“AFTER this Settlement of your Western Boundary, the Grant of Pennsylvania was made to WILLIAM PENN, the Duke of York also relinquishing his Claim to the Lands comprised therein; and it was never understood by the Crown at that Time, nor by the Grantee WILLIAM PENN, nor by any other Persons for near Eighty Years, so far as I have heard, that the Grant of Pennsyl- “vania any Way intrenched upon, or approached near any of the “New-England Grants, 'till the late Claim was set up on the Part “of your Colony.

“BEING clearly of Opinion, for these and many other Reasons,
 “that the present Claim made by your Government, of any Lands
 “Westward of the Province of New-York, is without the least “Foundation, you cannot reasonably expect that I should accept
 “of the Proposal of settling and ascertaining the Boundaries
 “between the Colony of Connecticut and this Province, or enter
 “with you into a Negotiation on that Subject: Nor can, I, with “any Propriety, agree to the Alternative proposed in the Act of “Assembly of your Colony, which you have laid before me, viz.
 ““That if we cannot agree amicably to ascertain those Boundaries,
 “then to join in an Application to His Majesty to appoint Com“missioners for that Purpose,” because in either of these Cases, I “should admit a Claim on the Part of your Colony, which the “Proprietaries of Pennsylvania are well advised cannot be sup“ported, without giving your Charter a Construction different
 “from what has been determined to be the Sense of other Charters,
 “of the like Kind, nor without allowing your Limits to extend far “beyond those heretofore fixed by the Royal Authority.

“BUT if your Colony, Gentlemen, should still apprehend they “have a just Claim to Lands within the Grant of this Province,
 “and should adhere to their late Resolve to assert and support it,
 “you may be assured that the Proprietaries of Pennsylvania most “ardently wish to have the Matter brought to the most speedy “Issue possible, and that, upon a Petition for that Purpose, to be “preferred by your Government to His Majesty in Council, which “it is apprehended is the proper constitutional Tribunal to apply
 “to on this Occasion, they will appear on the first Notice, and “answer such Petition, and give all the Dispatch in their Power
 “to bring the Matter to a final Decision.

“IT gives me the greatest Concern, when I call to Mind the “repeated Outrages which have been committed by a Number of “lawless People from your Colony, who, without any Warrant or “Authority from the Government of Connecticut, have for some “Years past, forcibly, and in an hostile Manner, dispossessed the “Tenants who were settled on Lands under Warrants and by the “Licence of the Proprietors of Pennsylvania.

“I SHALL however be ready to hear any reasonable Proposals you
 “may have to offer for putting an End to such Violence, and restore
 “the public Tranquility in future, and shall chearfully join with “you in any proper and equitable Measures to effect so valuable a “Purpose.

“I am,

“GENTLEMEN,

“Your most obedient humble Servant,

“JOHN PENN.”

YOUR Committee imagining from the above Letter, as well as from Conversation with several principal Members of Council, that little Prospect remained of succeeding in the two first Branches of their Negotiation, and considering that the Peace of the Settlers was a diffuse Subject, and that a Treaty upon it, in the Course they were in, might be protracted to an immoderate Length, and consume much Time; to abbreviate and expedite it, as much as possible, they requested of the Governor a free Conference with him upon the Subject, to which we were accordingly admitted (he sitting again in Council) on Saturday the 18th of December, at 11 o'Clock.

IN the Course of this Conference the whole Subject was fully discussed, and particularly that Part of it which respected the Quiet of the Inhabitants of the contested Country, during the Pendency of the Controversy; to effect which, your Committee proposed a personal Distinction of the Settlers for the Purpose of Jurisdiction, by their entering their Names in some proper Office; which after a full Discussion was rejected, and the Conference ended between One and Two o'Clock.

ON Monday Morning, the 20th, we transmitted the following Answer to the last above-recited Letter from Governor PENN;

"Philadelphia, 18th December, 1773.

"SIR,

"WE are extremely sorry to find, by your Favor of Yesterday, "that all Hopes of an amicable Settlement of the Controversy between the Colony of Connecticut and the Proprietaries "of Pennsylvania are at an End — that you are of Opinion, that "you cannot, with any Propriety, enter into any Negotiation with "us for that Purpose — or even accept the Alternative proposed in "the Act of Assembly of our Colony, of a joint Application to His "Majesty to appoint Commissioners to decide it.

"THAT his Majesty in Council is the Constitutional Tribunal by "which we must be finally decided in all Disputes of this Nature, "we agree, and are persuaded that all it's Decisions will ever be "founded in the strictest Impartiality and Justice. Yet, it must "be admitted, it is a Tribunal which, from it's Distance, it's Constitution and other Circumstances, is attended always with great "Expence, frequently with much Delay to the Suitors. We cannot "therefore but be of the Opinion, that it would have been more "eligible for the Colony and the Proprietors, to have settled this "Dispute by Agreement between themselves, or by Reference to "Gentlemen of Judgment and Impartiality in the neighbouring "Colonies, who might have immediately decided it upon the Spot, "with little Expence; or even, if it was judged more expedient to "apply to His Majesty in Council, we apprehend much Delay and "Expence might have been saved, and a more conclusive Decision "obtained by a joint Application.

“THE Reasons which you have been pleased to mention as the Ground of your Opinion upon this Subject, do not appear to us to be conclusive. There is a clear Distinction between a Claim and a Right; and however ill founded the Claim of the Colony may by you be imagined to be, yet that it is an existing Claim, cannot be denied; and how the Admission of such Claim, so far as to negotiate upon it, to attempt to settle it, or to join in an Application to His Majesty for an Adjudication upon it, can, in any Respect, prejudice the Right, we cannot comprehend.—— The Colony and the Proprietaries both claim the same Country, the Right to that Country can be in but one of them — The Claim on both Sides must be admitted, the Right alone will be disputed; it can therefore prejudice neither Party, or must affect both equally, to submit in any proper Manner, that Right, to be discussed and adjudicated.

“We apprehend that your Honor is much mistaken in imagining that the Settlement of the Line between the Colony of Connecticut and the Grant to the Duke of York in 1664, was in any Degree occasioned by the Uncertainty of the Bounds and Extent of the Charter to Connecticut and the other New-England Grants. That Determination had another and a very different Foundation, viz. the Possession on the Part of the Dutch, of that Territory which was afterwards granted to the Duke of York; a Possession which occasioned it's being excepted out of the original Grant to the Council of Plymouth, and in fact prevented it's being ever vested in the Crown until the Conquest thereof by Col. Nichols in August 1664.—— As that Territory, therefore, was not, in 1662, in the Crown to grant, no Part of it could pass, by the Patent, to Connecticut; and it became absolutely necessary, after the Conquest and the Grant to the Duke of York, to ascertain what Extent of Territory had been so possessed by the Dutch and excepted out of the antecedent Grants from the Crown, and accordingly the Commission under which that Settlement was made, was not merely a Commission to settle Boundaries, but an Authority to hear and receive and to examine and determine all Complaints and Appeals in all Causes and Matters as well military as criminal and civil, and proceed in all Things for providing for and settling the Peace and Security of said Country, and was applied upon that Occasion only to the Determination of what Part of the Country the Duke of York was intitled to, in Virtue of the Dutch Possession. It is obvious, therefore, both from the Occasion and the Spirit of that Agreement and Settlement, that it could not extend to or affect any other Country than that claimed by the Duke of York, which was expressly limited, in Point of Western Extention, by the River Delaware, and consequently can be of no Use to the Proprietaries of Pennsylvania, who claim not under the Duke of York, but immediately from the Crown by their Grant in 1681.

“The Country now claimed by the Proprietaries under that Grant within the Boundaries of the Colony of Connecticut, was in 1662 undoubtedly in the Crown, and consequently passed by the Royal Grant to the Governor and Company of that Colony, and clearly could not be re-vested in the Crown, by a Settlement in 1664, (to which the Crown was not Party) with the Duke of York, who was but a private Subject, and not having been re-vested in the Crown, it is impossible it could pass by the Grant to WILLIAM PENN in 1681.— That Settlement therefore we conceive ought to have no Weight in your Deliberations upon this Subject, much less to form an Objection against your entering into a Settlement of the Controversy with Connecticut in the most expeditious and least expensive Mode that can be devised.

“Or the same Nature is the Doubt which you imagine we admit with Respect to the Course in which the Southern Line of the Grant to Connecticut shall pass the Grant to WILLIAM PENN— Though we chose to leave that Question open to Discussion until a Negotiation was actually entered upon, yet when all Parts of the Grant, and other Circumstances of the Case are considered, we apprehend very little Doubt can remain with Respect to it.— Indeed, we imagine your Honor could not reasonably expect from us a different Answer than that which was given upon the Requisition made us, as we had received no Intimations from you of any Dispositions towards an amicable Settlement of the Controversy, we apprehend you could not expect but that we should save to the Colony whom we have the Honor to represent, all Advantage of the most favorable Construction of their Grant in Case they must be put to an adversary Suit and a legal Decision of the Controversy— But to the Purpose of the Negotiation we proposed, the most narrow Construction of the Grant to Connecticut, was, we apprehend, abundantly sufficient, since a Line parallel to the Massachusetts Line drawn from the Southwestern Boundary of Connecticut with the Province of New-York, will include at least one Degree in Width of the Lands claimed by the Proprietaries as Part of this Province—an Object of sufficient Importance to merit your Attention, and to be the Ground of such a Negotiation as we had the Honor to propose to you.

“HOWEVER, as your Sentiments are decisive upon this Subject, we beg Pardon for giving you further Trouble upon it, which we should not have done but to evince to you with how much Reluctance we resign the Hopes we had entertained of an amicable Settlement of the Controversy.

“It is, however, with very great Satisfaction, that we receive the Intimations you are pleased to give us of your Wishes to preserve Peace among the Inhabitants settled under the different Claims, and your Readiness to receive Proposals tending to that beneficial Purpose.

“It is with equal Concern that we also recollect the mutual “Violences which have been committed upon the contested Lands
 “— We will not take upon us absolutely to justify or to condemn “either Party — Give us Leave only to remark, that as the Settlers
 “from Connecticut and other Colonies (for but Part of them were
 “from that Colony) entered under the Susquehannah Company, who “also imagined themselves to have the Connecticut Title, with a “declared Purpose of gaining an actual Possession, without which,
 “they were advised, they could not advantageously try their Title,
 “they entered under the Idea of Right, and in Point of Intention “may be excused: But as the Colony has now taken up the “Matter, and expresly asserted their Claim, that the like Mischiefs
 “may in future be prevented, and Peace and good Order preserved
 “in that Part of the Country, we propose, that without Prejudice
 “to the Rights of the Colony or the Proprietaries, a temporary “Line of Jurisdiction be agreed upon, which neither Party shall “exceed, and within which each respectively may exercise such “Powers and Authorities as they judge proper, without Interrup“tion or Controul. And as the Settlements under the Proprietors
 “are chiefly upon the Western, and those under Connecticut princi“pally upon the Eastern Branch of the Susquehannah River, we “apprehend a temporary Line may be so drawn as that Jurisdic“tion may be exercised by each over their respective Settlers, “without much Inconvenience.— If the Idea shall meet with “your Honor’s Approbation, we will immediately proceed to “delineate and fix such Line with Precision, and are with much “Respect and Esteem,

“Your Honor’s most obedient Humble Servants,

“ELIPHALET DYER,

“JEDIDIAH STRONG,

AND having waited with some Impatience for his Reply till the 22d at Evening, we waited upon Mr. TILMAN, one of the Council, and Secretary of the Land-Office, to enquire when we might probably expect it. and if possible, to expedite it; when we found him and the Attorney General engaged in the Business, and received their positive Assurance that we should receive the Reply the next Day.— Accordingly at One o’Clock of the 23d we received the following Letter;

“Philadelphia, the 23d December, 1773.

“GENTLEMEN,

“I DO assure you I did not decline your Proposal for an amicable “Settlement of the Controversy between your Colony and the “Proprietaries of Pennsylvania, or of a joint Application to the “Crown to appoint Commissioners to settle Boundaries between “them, with a View either of protracting the Time, or enhancing
 “the Expence of a Decision; nor can I be of Opinion that an “adversary Suit, in which both Sides are desirous of a speedy Con-

"clusion, can be attended with any extraordinary Delay or "Expence.

"In the Case of Commissioners to settle Boundaries, they must
"probably be chosen in different Colonies, and their Meeting and
"Attendance would be both difficult to obtain, and in itself very "expensive, and perhaps after much Time spent in bringing the "Matter to a Period, the Determination might not be satisfactory
"to all Parties, and only prove the Foundation of an Appeal to
"His Majesty in Council.

"HAD I been inclined to an amicable Settlement of the Matter,
"I was not at Liberty; being concerned, as I told you in our
"Conference of Saturday last, only one Fourth of the Province,
"and being without Powers from the other Proprietor, who could
"not foresee, when I left England, that the Colony of Connecticut
"would have taken up this Dispute, or adopted a Claim which they
"had hitherto declined to meddle with.

"I AM sorry to find myself misapprehended when I speak of the "Admission of a Claim which I meant to guard against. I well
"know there is a clear Distinction between a bare Claim and a
"Right; but a just Claim and a Right I take to be the same Idea;
"and upon the Whole of my Expression, I think I must be under"stood to mean the Admission of a just Claim; and as, in my "Opinion, the Colony of Connecticut in it's Western Extent can "never be advanced beyond the Eastern Limits of New-York, I
"conceived there would have been an Impropriety in my agreeing
"to a joint Application for Commissioners to settle Boundaries;
"that carrying with it an implied acknowledgement that your
"Claim ought to extend so far as to join upon, or interfere with
"the Province of Pennsylvania.

"You apprehend I was mistaken in imagining that the Settle"ment of the Line between the Colony of Connecticut and the "Grant to the Duke of York, was in any Degree occasioned by
"the Uncertainty of the Bounds and Extent of the Charter of "Connecticut, and the other New-Eng'and Grants; and attempt to "explain the Motives of that Settlement; and then you proceed in
"a Course of Reasoning upon the Merits of your Claim.

"I AM still of Opinion that a supposed Uncertainty in the "Bounds of the New-England Grants is clearly to be inferred from
"the Terms of the Commission, under which the Settlement of
"1664 was made; but I do not conceive it at all material at this "Time to enter into any Debate upon the Inducements to the "making the Settlement of 1664; or the Extent of your Charter,
"or that of the Plymouth Company, or what Construction may, at
"this Time of Day, be put upon the Terms of them. The Mode of "Decision I consider as the principal Object, not the Merits of the "Dispute.

"WERE it expedient or proper, on this Occasion, to have entered "into a Discussion of the Right, I should not content myself with “pointing out the Settlement of 1664, conclusive as I esteem it to be.—The several Purchases made from the Indians by the Proprietaries, without any Objections on the Part of your Colony — the Sales made by them, and the Settlement and long Occupation of the Purchasers under those Sales, without Opposition — the Impracticability of exercising a Jurisdiction over the vast Territory which lies between the Atlantic Ocean and the South-Sea — the Interjacency of two Provinces between your Seat of Government and the Places to which you would now extend your Jurisdiction; together with the Acquiescence of your Colony under the Grant of Pennsylvania ever since the Year 1681 to the present Time; and many other Transactions and Circumstances attending the Case, afford abundant Matter for insuperable Objections to your Claim, and no Doubt will be urged before the Tribunal which is to decide the Controversy between us.

“I AM now to consider your proposed Method of establishing Peace and good Order, by drawing a temporary Line of Jurisdiction; — and to this too there appear to me Objections which cannot be got over.

“THE Legislature of this Province have erected that Part of the Country where the Connecticut People are settled into a County. There exists a legal Jurisdiction, which it is not in my Power to restrain, much less can I transfer it to another Government. Great Quantities of Land have been granted under this Province, before your Government took up this Matter, which will fall within any Line that can be devised; and it is not in my Power to prohibit the Purchasers from settling them; nor can I, with Justice, take any steps to restrain them.

“THESE are Difficulties which unavoidably obstruct your Proposal.

“MOREOVER, Gentlemen, you are in the Prosecution of a Claim which has long lain dormant, and surely, that Claim ought to be established by proper authority, before you can, with any Degree of Propriety, think of extending your Jurisdiction over a Country which hath been legally possessed, and where the regular Jurisdiction of another Government hath taken Place, long before your Colony had concluded to prosecute their Claim to it.

“As I cannot, for the Reasons assigned, accede to the Proposal of a temporary Line of Jurisdiction; so neither can I foresee any Means that appear to me likely to effectuate Peace and Order, and to prevent for the future such violent Outrages as have been lately perpetrated in that Part of the Country where the People of Connecticut are now settled, but their entirely evacuating the Lands in their Possession until a legal Decision of our Controversy may be obtained.

“AND when it is considered, that this Possession was effected by armed Bodies of People, in an hostile Manner expelling from their lawful Possessions those who had purchased their Lands

“and settled them under the Sanction of this Government, and “that this was done without any Warrant or Authority from the “Colony of Connecticut, nay long before that Colony had ever “avowed a Claim to these Lands, I cannot but think it highly “reasonable that such a tortious and unjustifiable Possession should “be relinquished by the Colony, at a Time when they are pursuing
 “a Claim on the Principles of Right and in a legal Way. Indeed
 “I cannot conceive, from the Measures that have been adopted by “the Colony of Connecticut since they have made their Claim, that “they can wish to avail themselves of a Possession extorted by “such lawless and violent Proceedings, or that they can imagine “themselves under the least Obligation to support or abet a Sett
 “of People who have been capable of acting in so outrageous and “unjustifiable a Manner.— I am therefore induced to hope,
 “Gentlemen, that when this Matter comes to be coolly considered
 “by your Government, if their Views are like mine directed to a “speedy and peaceable Decision of this Dispute, they will use all “possible Means to withdraw the People thus settled, in the most “expeditious and effectual Manner

“I OBSERVE, Gentlemen, you have not thought proper to say any “Thing in Answer to that Part of my letter where I propose that “you should exhibit a Petition to His Majesty, and that, on the “first Notice, the Proprietaries would appear and answer such “Petition, and expedite a Decision. I therefore think it necessary “to inform you, that in Case there should be any Delay on your “Part to exhibit such Petition, as your Colony have at Length “adopted a Claim which they have always heretofore declined, the “Proprietaries of Pennsylvania will immediately make their Appli“cation to His Majesty to take the Matter under his Royal Con“sideration.

“I am, Gentlemen,

“Your most obedient humble Servant,

“JOHN PENN.”

To which we rejoined in this Manner.

“Philadelphia, 24th of December, 1773.

“SIR,

“IT is with great Satisfaction that we receive the Assurances “contained in your Favor of Yesterday, that you do not “decline the Proposal we made, of an amicable Settlement of the “Controversy between the Colony of Connecticut and the Proprie-“taries of Pennsylvania; nor a joint Application to the Crown to “appoint Commissioners to decide it, with a View of protracting
 “the Time or enhancing the Expence of a Decision. We can “therefore only lament that you see this Affair in a very different “Light from that in which it presents itself to our Minds; as, “notwithstanding the additional Observations you have made, we “are still clearly of Opinion, that much Time, Expence and Trouble
 “might have been saved by a Reference to Gentlemen in America,

“or a joint Application to His Majesty;—since with Respect to “the former, we do not apprehend that His Majesty will determine
“a Controversy of this Magnitude and Importance, without first “issuing a Commission to hear and examine in America, reserving
“an Appeal to himself in Council; so that the whole Expence and “Delay of soliciting such Commission and of the subsequent “Appeal, which must be very great, would have been saved in the “Mode we proposed. And that both the Colony and the Proprie-
“taries would have acquiesced in the Decision of such Referrees,
“we cannot Doubt—In Point of Honor, neither of them could “have receded from the Determination of impartial Judges of “their own appointing. And with Respect to the latter, we “imagine we foresee Difficulties, unnecessary now to be mentioned,
“of great and real Weight, which will attend an adversary Suit by “either Party, which would have been totally obviated by a joint “Application.

“Your Want of full Powers from the other Proprietor of the “Province, We acknowledge is a real Difficulty, which might have “prevented an immediate Settlement of the Controversy; but “were your Desires to effectuate such a Settlement as ardent as “those with which we are impressed; such is now the Facility of “Communication between this Country and Great-Britain, that the “Delay which would attend the obtaining of full Powers would “have been of very short Duration.

“We do not yet see that the Admission of our Claim, whether “just or imaginary, so far as to join in an Application to His “Majesty for Commissioners to decide it, could in any Respect
“prejudice the Proprietaries. And the Impropriety or the implied “Acknowledgement you apprehend it would carry with it, seem to “be founded in too narrow an Idea of the Powers to be applied
“for.—We do not apprehend that the Commission to be issued
“upon this Occasion, should be simply to settle Boundaries, though
“this too must be included; but a Commission delegating a “complete Jurisdiction to hear and adjudge the whole Contro“versy in whatever Light it may present itself — To this Purpose
“it is clearly enough, that the Colony claim as their Right, a large “Country which the Proprietaries conceive belongs to them.

“In the Idea you inculcate, that it is not at all material at this “Time to enter into the Merits of the Dispute any farther than “respects the most eligible Mode of deciding it, we very fully con“cur;—If we have done more, we very freely acknowledge it was “totally improper, and we beg Leave to assure you, that we should “have said nothing upon the Merits of our Claim, had not the “Settlement in 1664 seemed to have been understood by you, as “being of so decisive a Nature as absolutely to preclude all further “Controversy, and been stated in your Letter as a conclusive “Objection against your entering into any Negotiation upon the “Subject. It was necessary therefore, for us, if we hoped to “succeed in any Measure in the Negotiation with which we were “charged, if possible to remove that Objection; — In this Light,

 “and to this Purpose only, it was, that we took the Liberty to “submit to your Consideration the short Hints we threw out upon “that Subject, sensible that the full Discussion of it must be “referred to another Time and another Occasion, before a proper

“It is for the like Reason only, that we will not, upon this “Occasion, make any Strictures upon the other Objections, you
 “have hinted at, to the Connecticut Title, to all which the most “satisfactory Answers may be given; — it were only to observe,

“THE Purchases from the Indians by the Proprietaries, and “Sales by them made, were they more ancient than they are,
 “could add no Strength to the Proprietary Title, since the Right
 “of Preemption of the Natives, was, by the Royal Grant, expressly “vested in the Colony of Connecticut, and consequently those “Purchases and Sales were equally without any legal Foundation,
 “they could neither acquire any Right by the one, or transfer any “Title by the other, — but that both the one and the other, have “been too recent to be the Ground of any Argument, since we are “advised that the Proprietaries made no Purchase of the Natives,
 “of any Consequence to this Dispute, prior to the Treaty at Fort “Stanwix — That the actual Occupation under the Connecticut
 “Title of the contested Lands, was as early, and in some Parts of “the Country, prior to that under the Proprietaries — That the “imagined Impracticability of exercising Jurisdiction, by the “Colony, over so extensive a Country, is a Question of Policy, not “an Objection to the Right, and can have no more Weight against “the Colony Title than the Impropriety and ill Policy of vesting
 “so large a Territory as that of Pennsylvania in a single Subject,
 “will have against that of the Proprietaries, and are Considerations, “both equally improper to be mentioned on either Side — That “of the same Nature is the supposed Difficulty of the Intervention
 “of another Province between our Seat of Government and the “Country over which we thus Claim a Jurisdiction, which is also “a Question of Policy, and yet, has, in Fact, in one Instance at “least, in America been found to be attended with no Difficulty of “any Consequence — That the Acquiescence of the Colony under “the Grant of Pennsylvania, is of no more Force than the Acquie“scence of the Proprietaries under the Grant to Connecticut, and “can have little Weight on either Side, since ‘till very lately the “Indians refused to give up the Country to either, and neither can “be considered as having suffered their Claim to have lain culpably “dormant under the particular Circumstances of the Case and the “Situation of the Country, and especially that this cannot be “imputed to Connecticut, whose Grant was expressly for the Purpose
 “of Settlement, but without Limitation of Time, and they had not, “‘till within a very few Years past, settled the Country to the “Eastward of New-York, and consequently could not, upon any “proper Grounds, sooner pursue their Claim or attend to the actual Settlement of this Western Part of their Colony.

“But these, and many other Circumstances and Considerations, tending to elucidate and to establish the Claim of the Colony beyond all Contradiction, we will make no Mention of, as proper only to be explained and enforced before a Tribunal competent to the Determination of the whole Controversy.

“But as the Application to such a Tribunal, whether on the Part of the Colony, or as you propose, by the Proprietaries (to which we have no Objection) will necessarily take up much Time, we are extremely sorry to find, that you cannot agree, in the mean Time, to the Methods we have proposed for preserving Peace and good Order among the Inhabitants in that Part of the Country.—neither to that of a personal Distinction, for the Purpose of Jurisdiction, of the Claimants under the several Titles, by entering their Names in some proper Office, which we offered at the Conference with you on Saturday last, nor that of a temporary Line of Jurisdiction, which we proposed in our Paper of the 18th Instant, and that nothing less will satisfy you, than a total Evacuation of the Country by the Settlers under Connecticut.—This is a Measure which we do not think ourselves authorized by the Colony to consent to, and which we have no Imagination that they will adopt.

“We consider therefore our Negotiation with you as at an End, and have only to console ourselves, that whatever happens, we have on our Part faithfully endeavored, not only to terminate the Controversy with all possible Dispatch, but also to provide for the Quiet of the Country while the Dispute shall be depending.

“Give us Leave, however, at Parting, to remark, in Answer to the Reasons you mention for not acceding to our Proposals, that we never imagined that it was in your Power, by your own Authority, to controul the Jurisdiction erected in that Part of the Country, or to prohibit or restrain the Purchasers from settling under the Grants actually made to them under this Province; but we did imagine, and this we have yet no Doubt of, that the Legislature of the Colony, of which you are a Part, would, at your Desire, have added the Sanction of their Authority, to any Agreement you had thought proper to have come into for preserving the Peace of the People;—Your Want of Power in your personal Capacity, or as one of the Proprietaries of the Province, can therefore, with us, form no Objection why you should not have accepted one or other of our Proposals, since we are persuaded that the Assembly of the Province would have given every Aid in their Power to so salutary a Design.

“It is with much Concern, that we find your Attention so strongly turned towards the Proceedings of the Susquehannah Company in settling under the Connecticut Title, and that you have conceived so ill an Opinion of those Proceedings. This is a

"Subject which we were not instructed to discuss, and which we
 "waved entering into, particularly in our former Papers; — But
 "since you recal our Attention to it, in the Manner you have done,
 "we cannot forbear observing to you, that the primary Possession
 "of the People under Connecticut was taken at a Time when the "Country was intirely a Wilderness, under an Indian Purchase.
 "approved of by the Colony and under their Title of Preemption
 "from the Crown, when there was no Person upon the Land;
 "much less, any Body holding under the Proprietaries; and of "Course could not be attended with any Force or Violence. This "Possession was interrupted by the Indians of the far Nations, in
 "open War, and again, without Force, resumed in 1762, and was
 "only suspended while the Matter could be laid before His Majesty,
 "in Consequence of a Letter from the Earl of Egremont, one of His
 "Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, founded upon Represen"tations made by the Governor of this Province, transmitted by
 "Sir Jeffery Amherst, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces
 "in North-America, suggesting that the Settlement was disagreeable
 "to the Indians, and might occasion an Indian War, and the "Devastation of the Frontiers. When that Representation to His "Majesty had been made, and all Apprehensions of Displeasure
 "from the Indians were effectually removed by their Resignation
 "of the Country at the Treaty of Fort Stanwix, they apprehended
 "they might very justifiably resume their Possessions, which they
 "attempted to do in a peaceable Manner, but were, as we are "advised, interrupted and opposed by Persons claiming under the "Proprietaries. Then it was that Violence commenced and Force
 "was opposed to Force — on the one hand to regain, on the other
 "to prevent an actual Occupation of the Lands; on neither Side,
 "perhaps, justifiable in the Degree, but on both founded on a real
 "Idea of Right, and therefore not meriting the severe Construc"tion that has been put upon it, or the harsh Epithets you have
 "applied to it. — When you add to this, that they were advised,
 "as in Fact they were, that they could not try their Right or the "Title of the Colony of Connecticut, but upon the Ground of an "actual Possession, which should put the Proprietaries to such an
 "Action at Law for the Recovery of the Possession as might
 "bring the Title in Question — That the first Possession and the "subsequent Struggles to regain and maintain their Possession,
 "was with the avowed Purpose of trying the Title in the most
 "regular and effectual Manner — That they expresly offered,
 "both here and in Europe, to submit to, and be concluded by, a
 "legal Decision — That their Situation was such that they could
 "bring no possessory Action themselves, and that the Proprietors
 "and those who held under them, refused, or, at least, neglected,
 "to bring any Action of that Nature on their Part but on the "contrary repeatedly harrassed these unfortunate People with "criminal Prosecutions in which the Title could not come in
 "Question, and even in those Cases, when a Plea to the Jurisdic-

"tion of the Court was offered, it was absolutely rejected, and
 "that with Circumstances of Contempt!

"WHEN you consider these Circumstances, and many others,
 "which are capable of the clearest Proof, we cannot but hope you
 "will entertain, in future, more favorable Sentiments of the "Connecticut Settlers and their former Proceedings than have been
 "attempted to be impressed upon you by the Representations of "interested Individuals, willing to magnify past Services or
 "procure future Favors; and will not be surprised that the Colony
 "should be content to avail themselves of a Possession which "began and has been continued with such Views and under such "Circumstances, or be willing to take under their Protection, a
 "People, who have uniformly claimed under their Title, and
 "labored indefatigably to bring it to a legal Decision.

"WE cannot, finally, omit to remind you, that the established
 "Jurisdiction under this Province, of which you avail yourself,
 "and to which you wish our People to submit, was erected, not "only after the Possession above referred to, but after it was
 "publicly known that the General Assembly of Connecticut had
 "directed a State of their Claim to be drawn up and laid before
 "learned Council in England, for their Opinion, and was, perhaps,
 "precipitated to prevent, if possible, the probable Consequences of "that Measure. Upon the Whole, though we thought it our Duty,
 "drawn to it by some Expressions in your Letter, to mention
 "some of these Circumstances, and the Grounds of the former
 "Proceedings in this Matter, yet we wish not to dwell upon them,
 "or to recal to Mind Occurrences which can afford no Pleasure in
 "the Review, and will have little Influence upon the Case in it's
 "present State, since it must finally be determined, not by these
 "incidental Circumstances and Occurrences, but upon great and
 "general Principles;—By them we are content to stand or fall,
 "and will be finally decided when the Cause shall be duly
 "adjudged.—In the mean Time, we beg Leave to return you
 "our sincere Thanks for the Politeness and Candor you have "discovered upon this Occasion—of which, and every other
 "Circumstance of the present Negotiation, we assure you we will "make a faithful Report to our Constituents, and are, with very
 "great Esteem and Respect,

"Your Honor's most obedient,

"And most humble Servants,

"ELIPHALET DYER,

"WILLIAM-SAMUEL JOHNSON, } Commissioners."

"JEDIDIAH STRONG,

We accompanied our Letter with this Card;

"COL. DYER, Dr. JOHNSON, and Mr. STRONG, present their
 "respectful Compliments to Governor PENN, and acquaint him that
 "they purpose to set out on their Return Home this Afternoon,

"and if there are any Services which they can render him either in Connecticut or New-York, they will be very happy to receive the Honor of his Commands.

"SATURDAY NOON."

To which the Governor replied,

"GOVERNOR PENN presents his Compliments to Col. DYER, Dr.
JOHNSON, and Mr. STRONG—is much obliged to them for the polite offer of their Services, and wishes them a pleasant Journey.
"Saturday, December 25th."

Which closed our Proceedings with him, and we immediately came out of Town on our Return Home.

Your Honor's

Most obedient

And humble Servants,

ELIPHALET DYER,
WILLIAM-SAMUEL JOHNSON,

of the Colony of CONNECTICUT, holden at New-
Haven, on the Second Thursday of October, 1774.*

RESOLVED by this ASSEMBLY, That His Honour the GOVERNOR be, and he is hereby desired to cause fix hundred Copies of the Queries from the Secretary of State, dated 5th July, 1773, and the Answers thereto, prepared by His Honour, and laid before this Assembly, to be printed, and cause the same to be distributed to the several Towns in this Colony, in proportion to their List of Estates.

GEORGE WYLLYS, Sec'y.

HEADS of INQUIRY, ANSWERS, returned to His Majesty's Secretary of State, by the Governor and Company of the English Colony of CONNECTICUT, signified by His Majesty's Secretary of State, in his Letter of the 5th July, 1773.

I. WHAT is the Situation of the Colony under your Government, the Nature of the Country, Soil and Climate, the Latitudes and Longitudes of the most considerable Places in it? — Have those Latitudes and Longitudes been settled by good Observations, or only by common Computations, and from whence are the Longitudes computed?

The Country healthful, although subject to the extremes of Heat and Cold in their Seasons, and to frequent sudden Changes. Two considerable Places and Ports in the Colony are — New-London, Latitude $41^{\circ} 25'$. North, Longitude $72^{\circ} 15'$. West — New-Haven, Latitude $41^{\circ} 18'$. North, Long. $72^{\circ} 56'$. West; settled by good Observations: The Longitudes computed from the Royal Observatory at Greenwich.

II. What are the reputed Boundaries? And are any Parts thereof disputed? What Parts, and by whom?

I. The Situation of the first settled Part of this Colony is mostly from Forty-one to Forty-two Degrees of northerly Latitude, and from Seventy-two to Seventy-three Degrees and Forty-five Minutes of West Longitude. The Soil of this Colony (lying in the 5th and 6th North Climate) is generally fertile, interspersed with mountainous and broken Land, with some small Parts thin and barren: —

II. The Boundaries are expressed in our Charter, — viz. "All that Part of His Majesty's Dominions in New-England, in America, bounden on the East

"by Narraganset-River, commonly called Narraganset-Bay, where the River falleth into the Sea; and on the North by the Line of the Massachusetts-Plantation; and on the South by the Sea; and in Longitude as the Line of the Massachusetts Colony, running from East to West, that is to say, from the said Narraganset-Bay on the East, to the South-Sea on the West Part, with the Islands thereunto adjoining."

A Number of the Inhabitants of this Colony, called the Susquehannah, and Delaware Companies, in the Year 1754, for great and valuable Considerations, in Money, paid and satisfied to the Indians of the Six Nations, purchased of them, as early as they, the Aboriginal Proprietors, were willing to grant and convey their Title to a large Tract of Land, within the Bounds and Limits of this Colony, lying West of the River Delaware, and from thence spreading over the East and West Branches of the Susquehannah River. Since such Purchases a great Number of our Inhabitants have made Settlements thereon.

The General Assembly of this Colony have asserted their Claim to those Lands: And the Inhabitants dwelling within the Bounds of this Colony, on the West Side of the Delaware River, are made and constituted a distinct Town, with like Powers and Privileges as other Towns in this Colony by Law have, within the following Bounds, viz. bounded East by Delaware River, North by the North Bound of the Colony, West by a North and South Line across the Colony at fifteen Miles Distance West from a Place on the Susquehannah River called Wyoming, and South by the South Line of this Colony; which Town is called by the Name of Westmoreland, and is annexed to the County of Litchfield. The Proprietaries of Pennsylvania, dispute the Right of this Colony to those Lands; they refuse to join, to run, or to settle the Line between this Colony, and that Province.

III. What is the Size and Extent of the Colony, the Number of Acres supposed to be contained therein? What Part thereof is cultivated and improved? and under what Titles do the Inhabitants hold their Possession?

III. The Size and Extent of the first settled Part, is from the Colony of Rhode-Island on the East, to the Province of New-York on the West; and from the Massachusetts on the North, to the Sea on the South: Two millions, six hundred and forty thousand Acres, are supposed to be contained therein.

The Proportion of arable, meadow, pasture, woodland, and such as is mountainous and barren, is unknown. The Lands beyond the River Delaware, lately purchased from the Indian Proprietors, are still less known. The original Title to the Lands on which the Colony was first settled, was at the Time the English came hither, in the Pequot Nation of Indians, who were numerous and warlike; their Country extended from Narraganset to Hudson's River, and over all Long-Island. — Sasacus, their great Sagamore, had under him twenty six Sachems: He injuriously made War upon the English; he exercised despotic Dominion over his Subjects; he, with all his Sachems and People, were conquered, and made Tributaries to the English. The War being ended, Considerations and Settlements were made with such Sachems and People as remained, who came in, and received to their full Contentment and Satisfaction; and have at all Times since been used and treated with Justice and Humanity. No Grants are made by the General Assembly, before the Indian Title is purchased, agreeable to the Right of Pre-emption, granted by Royal Charter to the Governor and Company of this Colony. Thus the greatest Part of this Colony was purchased and obtained for great and valuable Considerations, and other Parts thereof gained by Conquest, and with much Difficulty, and at the only Endeavours, Expence and Charges of Persons thereby interested in the plantation of Connecticut, in New-England, and their Associates. Thereupon, agreeable to our Royal Patent and Grant, the Title under which the Inhabitants hold their Possession, is a Grant and Patent made by the General Assembly of the Governor and Company of this Colony to the respective Townships, or to particular Persons, to them, their Heirs, Successors and Assigns forever, according to the most free Tenure of East Greenwich, in the County of Kent, in the Realm of England.

IV. What Rivers are there, and of what Extent and Convenience in point of Commerce?

IV. The Principal Rivers are, Connecticut, New-London, Stratford, Delaware, and Susquehanna. The Extent of the first is through New-Hampshire, Massachusetts-Bay, and this Colony; navigable to Hartford; the second to Norwich; the third to Derby. the northern Parts of this is usually called Ousatannock-River: They are all of great Convenience in point of Commerce.

V. What are the principal Harbours, how situated, of what extent, and what is the depth of Water, and nature of Anchorage each?

V. The principal Harbours are, New London, and New-Haven: The former opens to the South; from the Light-House at the Mouth of the Harbour, to the Town, is about three Miles, the Breadth three-quarters of a Mile, and in some Places more; — from five to six Fathoms Water, — a clear Bottom — tough Ooze — and as far up as one Mile above the Town entirely secure and commodious for large Ships: The latter is situate North and South; half a Mile wide at the Entrance, — from thence to the Town four Miles — having two Fathom and one Half at low Water, and three Fathom and four Feet at common Tides, and very good Anchorage.

VI. What is the Constitution of the Government?

VI. The Constitution of the Government by Royal Charter, is a Legislative Power vested in the General Assembly, which consists of the Governor, or in his Absence the Deputy-Governor, and twelve Assistants (called the Upper House), and Representatives, not exceeding Two from each Town, chosen by the Freemen of the respective Towns they represent, (called the Lower House).

No Act is valid without the joint Concurrence of both Houses: They make Laws, institute Judicatories, appoint Judges, and other necessary Officers, who are sworn to a faithful Discharge of their Trust. A General Assembly is holden, agreeable to Royal Charter, in May and October, annually; and at other Times when called by the Governor, or in his Absence the Deputy-Governor, on any Emergency.

VII. What is the Trade of the Province? the number of Shipping belonging thereto. their Tonnage, and number of Seafaring Men, with their respective Increase or Diminution within ten Years past?

Hundred and Eighty — their Tonnage 10,317 — Seafaring Men 1162 — besides upwards of twenty Sail of Coasting Vessels, that employ about ninety Seamen: — The Increase since the Year 1762, in Number of Shipping, 76 — their Tonnage 6,790 — Seafaring Men 601.

VIII. What Quantity and Sorts of British Manufactures do the Inhabitants annually take from hence? What Goods and Commodities are exported from thence to Great Britain, and what is the annual Amount at Average?

are almost all that are useful or ornamental in common Life. The Goods and Commodities exported from hence to Great-Britain, are Pot and Pearl Ashes, Lumber, and some salted Provisions; the annual Amount at an Average may be £.10,000 Sterling.

IX. What Trade has the Province under your Government with any foreign Plantations, or any Part of Europe besides Great-Britain? How is that Trade carried on? What Commodities do the People under your Government send to, or receive from foreign Plantations; and what is the annual Amount at an Average?

— from the Dutch Plantations Bills of Exchange, — and from Barbary Mules, sold in the West Indies for Bills of Exchange: The annual Amount is about £.55,000, at an Average.

X. What Methods are there used to prevent illegal Trade? and are the same effectual?

VII. The principal Trade of this Colony is to the West-India Islands — excepting now and then a Vessel to Ireland with Flaxseed, and to England with Lumber and Potashes, and a few to Gibraltar and Barbary —

The number of Shipping is One Hundred and Eighty — their Tonnage 10,317 — Seafaring Men 1162 — besides upwards of twenty Sail of Coasting Vessels, that employ about ninety Seamen: — The Increase since the Year 1762, in Number of Shipping, 76 — their Tonnage 6,790 — Seafaring Men 601.

VIII. The Quantity of British Manufactures the Inhabitants do annually import hither from Great-Britain, are few; but including those taken from the Merchants of Boston and New-York, upon a Medium, from the best Observation, is £.200,000, Sterling, per Annum. The Sorts

IX. A Trade with the French and Dutch West-Indies, Gibraltar, and Barbary. Those Vessels that go from hence to the French and Dutch Plantations, carry Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Hogs, Provisions and Lumber: Those for Gibraltar and Barbary, carry Flour, Lumber, New-England Rum, and Stores for Muling; — they receive Molasses, Cocoa, Cotton, and some Sugar,

X. A careful Conformity of the Custom-House Officers, and all concerned to their Duty — which prove very effectual.

XI. What is the natural Produce of the Country, staple Commodities and Manufactures; and what Value thereof in Sterling Money may you annually export?

XI. It's natural Produce is Timber of all Kinds, Wheat, Rye, Indian-Corn, Beans, Barley, Oats and Flax : The staple Commodities are the above Produce, Pork, Beef, and Pot and Pearl Ashes.

The Manufactures are coarse Linnens and Woollens, done in the Family-way for the Use of the poorer Sort, Labourers, and Servants; — also Iron-mongery, but export none. The Value of our exported Produce and Commodities, may be annually £.200,000.

ERRATA ET CORRIGENDA.

Page 159, line 17, also p. 214, line 1, Scha. Griggs: the record is clear in both places, but, according to Waldo's Early History of Tolland, p. 139, his name was Ichabod.

Page 414, line 14, for Joseph Fuller read Joshua Fuller, though the former is the reading of the MS. record.

In Volume XII.

Page 234 The † should have followed the name of Amos Hitchcock and not that of Roger Enno. Abraham Foot was captain of the second, not of the fifth company.
